John Lennon

John Lennon (1940-1980) was the founder of The Beatles (1960), but in 1969, he married the artist Yoko Ono, and together they made an album that generated much controversy because it showed two naked on the CD. John Lennon was killed in 1980 by a fanatic fan in front of his house with a shot.

The song

The song that opens the album, "Imagine," became a hymn to peace. It speaks of his ideal utopia of a world and invites us to join him. In his letter, Lennon says that if you imagine the skies in a spiritual sense, does not exist.

Imagine there's no heaven

It's easy if you try

No hell below us

Above us only sky

Imagine all the people

Living for today

Imagine there's no countries

It isn't hard to do

Nothing to kill or die for

And no religion too

Imagine all the people

Living life in peace

You may say
I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope some day
You'll join us
And the world will be as one

Imagine no possessions
I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger
A brotherhood of man
Imagine all the people
Sharing all the world

You may say,
I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope some day
You'll join us
And the world will live as one

Grammar topic: Future with WILL

Subject + will + verb in the infinitive.

We use WILL to indicate that something should happen in the future, but is not in our plans.

Interrogative form:

Will the world live as one?

Affirmative form:

The world will live as one.

Negative form:

The world will not live as one.
