

Immigration to New Zealand

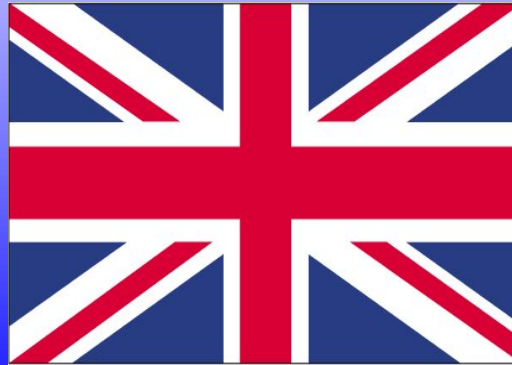

Teacher: Mr. Andrew

Student: Ayapbergen Nurymzhan

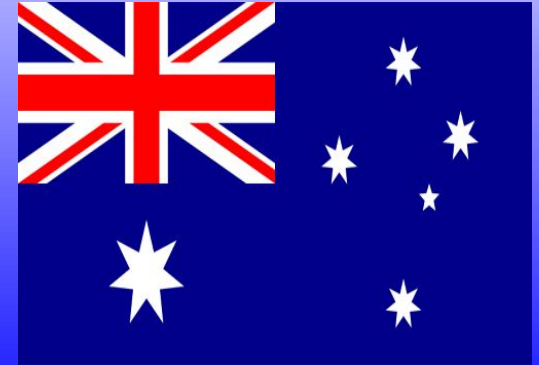

History

Flag of New Zealand

Flag of UK

Flag of Australia

Ethnicity

- 74.0% of New Zealand residents identified ethnically as European
- 14.9% as Māori
- Asian (11.8%)
- Pacific people (7.4%)

So Why in New Zealand has most Europeans, Asians, Pacific people and other nations than local Maoris?

Immigration

New Zealand was one of dependent territory of UK.

Immigrants were predominantly from Britain, Ireland and Australia because of restrictive policies similar to the white Australian policies. There was also significant Dutch, Dalmatian, Italian, and German immigration, together with indirect European immigration through Australia, North America, South America and South Africa.

Reasons of Immigration to New Zealand:

- 1) Language
- 2) Climate
- 3) Education
- 4) Geography
- 5) Economy
