

John Singer Sargent

Born	January 12, 1856 Florence, Italy
Nationality	American (United States)
Field	Painting
Influenced by	Carolus-Duran, Leon Bonnat, Diego Velazquez
Died	April 14, 1925 (aged 69) London, United Kingdom

Early life and training

John Singer Sargent, son of American expatriate parents, was born in Florence, Italy.

Sargent also took some lessons from Léon Bonnat, Carolus-Duran and Diego Velázquez.

Best works

Madame X (Madame Pierre Gautreau) (1884)

The Lady with the Rose (1882)

Later life and death

*By 1907, Sargent got tired of portrait painting.
He resumed his travels through Europe and to America.*

Sargent actively participated in the Grand Central Art Galleries until his death.

He returned to England, where he died on April 14, 1925 of heart disease.

Questions

1. When the artist was born?
2. At whom John Sargent studied?
3. In what year he moved to London?
4. What at it the best works?
5. Of what John Sargent died?

The end.
