

Musical Britain

England

Никитина С.Г., учитель английского языка, МОУ «СОШ №133», г. Пермь, 2011

The North of England

England is the musical centre of Great Britain.

- In England there are strong local traditions of music, the North of Britain has a deep custom of brass band music.

Beatles fans queue outside the HMV music store in Liverpool

“The Beatles” is internationally well-known musical group.

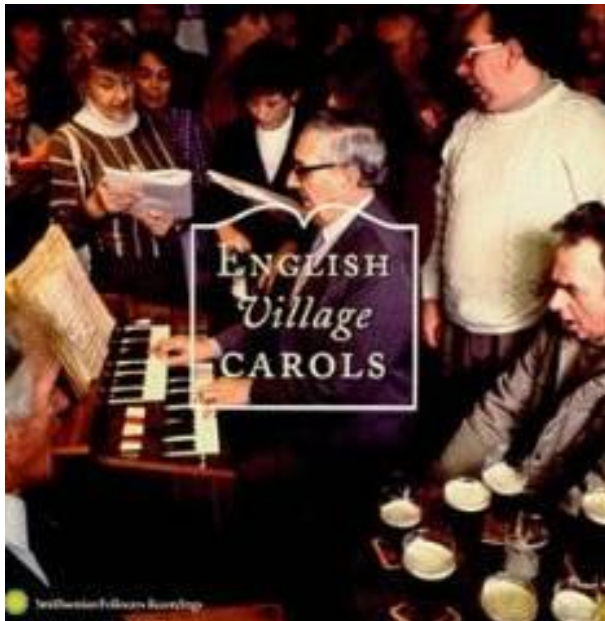

English church choirs

English church choirs

English pubs

The Great North Country and Western Festival is the oldest Country Music

- The Great North Country and Western Festival is the oldest Country Music Festival in the North of England
- There is a huge marquee with a professionally built stage, lighting and sound system, Seating at the front of the stage is for those who wish to simply sit and listen to the music, and behind it are table and chairs for those who wish to 'do their own thing' and at the back a spacious dance floor surrounded by circular tables and chairs for those who wish to dance.

Folk Festivals

