- On February, 23rd I marked with a family. Every year we celebrate day of defenders of fatherland together. Birthday of my father on February, 22nd. Therefore we unite these two holidays together.

- This year we marked a holiday in Yakutsk. I have taken away the brother from gathering. With mum and the sister have covered a festive table.

- Behind a table I with the sister and with mum have presented to our men gifts. To the father have presented hours, and to the brother a portable radio set.
