(CHRIST – the Head of Creation, not spoken off as a creature)

The message to Laodicea is one of judgement with a call to repentance. The oracle contains a number of striking metaphors. Rev 3:15-16 (ESV) “I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

It is thought that the Laodiceans were being criticized for their neutrality or lack of zeal (hence "lukewarm"). Based on this understanding, the negative term Laodicean is used in the English language to refer to those neutral or indifferent in matters of faith. (Wikipedia)

v.v 17-18 Because you say, ‘I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’—and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked— 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness (ARUM - perfidy) may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.

The words attributed to the Laodiceans obviously mark an ironic over-confidence in regard to spiritual wealth. They are unable to recognise their bankruptcy. However the image may also be drawing on the perceived worldly wealth of the city.
