Non-Defining Relative Clauses

Распространительные определительные предложения можно опустить без нарушения смысла всего предложения

Non-Defining Relative Clauses

3) Начинаются, как и ограничительные определительные предложения, с местоимений who, which, where, when, однако местоимение that в них никогда не употребляется! Местоимения опускать нельзя!

e.g. My school teacher, who doesn't know more than his students, sometimes misses classes.

Non-Defining Relative Clauses

e.g. This is John who is the head of the department.

5) Распространительные определительные придаточные предложения более характерны для книжной, письменной речи
