

Episode 6. Part 1. Vocabulary.

filthy	грязный
And we both need to be on the same page with all this stuff	И нам обоим нужно одинаково все это понимать
unadulterated	настоящий, подлинный, неподдельный
dumb	1) немой; 2) тупой, глупый
Shouldn't we be the ones complaining?	Разве не мы должны жаловаться?
I literally just said that. That's so weird.	Я, в буквальном смысле, только что это сказала. Это так странно.
paternity test	тест на отцовство
pathetic	жалкий
wimp	бесхарактерный человек,

tyrant

тиран, деспот

mature

зрелый

behavioral aide

поведенческий помощник

wave a wand

взмахнуть волшебной
палочкой

temper tantrums

приступы гнева

Episode 6. Part 1. Questions.

- What were Sarah and her kids discussing while going to school in the car?
- Why did Crosby come to Julia's office?
- What did Adam and Kristina tell the girl from behavioral aide about Max?

- The first part of the episode showed us the morning of different people. What is your typical morning like? What do you usually do in the morning? Do you like mornings? What would be a perfect morning for you?

Episode 6. Part 2. Vocabulary.

The horn lizard can squirt blood from its eyes

Рогатая ящерица может выдавливать кровь из глаз

The armadillo lizard can curl itself up into a tight ball to protect itself from attack

Ящерица-армадилл может свернуться в непроницаемый клубок, чтобы защититься от нападения

The sun-gazer lizard has spikes that cover its whole body

У гигантской ящерицы есть шипы, которые покрывают все ее тело

No way!

Ни за что!

board games

настольные игры

reward

награда

extracurricular activities	внеаудиторная деятельность Общественные занятия студентов, включающие дискуссионные клубы, спорт, музыку, самодеятельность и т.п.
passionate plea	горячая, пылкая, страстная просьба
nerdy and lame	занудный и убогий
occupational hazard	профессиональный риск
on purpose	специально, намеренно
good excuse	хорошее оправдание
There's something I've been meaning to tell you	Есть кое-что, что я собирался вам сказать
I'm here on my own behalf	Я здесь от своего имени

Episode 6. Part 2. Questions.

- How was Gabi – Max’s behavioral aide working with Max? Why was Kristina surprised?
- What did Amber ask her English teacher about?
- How did Crosby’s talk to his parents go? Why?
- Why did Amber’s English teacher come to Sarah? What did they talk about? What did he give to her?

- Gabi, Max's behavioral aide was really strict with him. Is it better to be strict or lenient and loyal to children? Why?
- Amber's English teacher wanted to go out with Amber's mother who was much older than he was. What do you think about age difference in relationship? What age difference is normal for a man and a woman? Why do you think so?

Episode 6. Part 3. Vocabulary.

subtlety of the situation	тонкость ситуации
gift	дар, талант, подарок
I'm just amazed	Я просто в шоке
You need to just cut yourself some slack and relax	Ты просто должна перестать так много от себя требовать и расслабиться
inspirational	вдохновляющий
He's worshipped like a deity	Ему поклоняются как божеству
harmless	безвредный

Episode 6. Part 3. Questions.

- What advice did Sarah want to get from Crosby? What did he tell her? What did he ask her to do?
- How was Max spending time in the park?
- What did Crosby see in the daycare? What was Joel doing?
- What were Kristina and Gabi talking about in the park?
- What did Crosby tell Julia about Joel?

- Max finally met a girl in the park. Maybe she could be his friend. Did you have a lot of friends when you were a child? Talk about them.