

Past Perfect Tense

The past perfect tense

Look at this sentence .

I had eaten my breakfast
before I went to school.

How is the past perfect formed?

had + V₃

Tom had played football before he went back home.

Use

We use Past Perfect Tense to describe

ONE PAST ACTION

happening before

ANOTHER PAST ACTION

Use

Example 1:

The train had gone when I arrived at the station.

Action 1

Action 2

- a. Both Action 1 and Action 2 are past actions.*
- b. Action 1 happened before Action 2 .*

Use

Time diagram of Example 1:

The train had gone when I arrived at the station.

We don't know when exactly the train went (Action 1) but it went at any point of time before the moment I arrived (Action 2).

Look at this example.

After he had taken
his music lesson,

he made a telephone call.

What had Tom done before he went fishing?

Tom had repaired
his car,
before he went fishing.

The key words of this tense are:

after

as soon as {had+V₃} Past simple

The key words of this tense are:

before

{past simple}+ Had+PP

By the time

The use of the past perfect tense.

We use the past perfect to talk about an action which happened before another action in the past*

Make similar sentences using after and before.

Finish work-watch TV

After I had finished work ,I watched TV

Before I watched TV ,I had finished my work.

Make similar sentences using by the time and as soon as

Eat breakfast-go to school

By the time I went to school,I had eaten my breakfast.

As soon as I had eaten my breakfast,I went to school

Make similar sentences using by the time and as soon as

Police arrive-thief escape

By the time the police arrived, the thief had escaped.

As soon as the thief had escaped, the police arrived.

So it is correct to say:

After he had finished the meeting ,he made a telephone call.

OR

Before he made a telephone call ,he had finished the meeting.

