

English schools

presentation was prepared by
Elena Tarakanove TM

Age of schools

Schools in England are divided into public and private.

Primary school in England teaches children from 5 to 11 years, after which they go to high school, where learning 5 years.

Classes, schedule, work activity

- Regular scheduled classes are held in the mornings from Monday to Friday. Lessons are held in classrooms, laboratories, computer classrooms, on a sports field and creative workshops, often visiting classes, sightseeing tours. How and in all schools, they have changes, breaks and competition-competition between schools. There Olympiad sciences at mat-ke, in chemistry, biology. ? Usally every student per day have about, 6-7 lessons, 1 hour duration

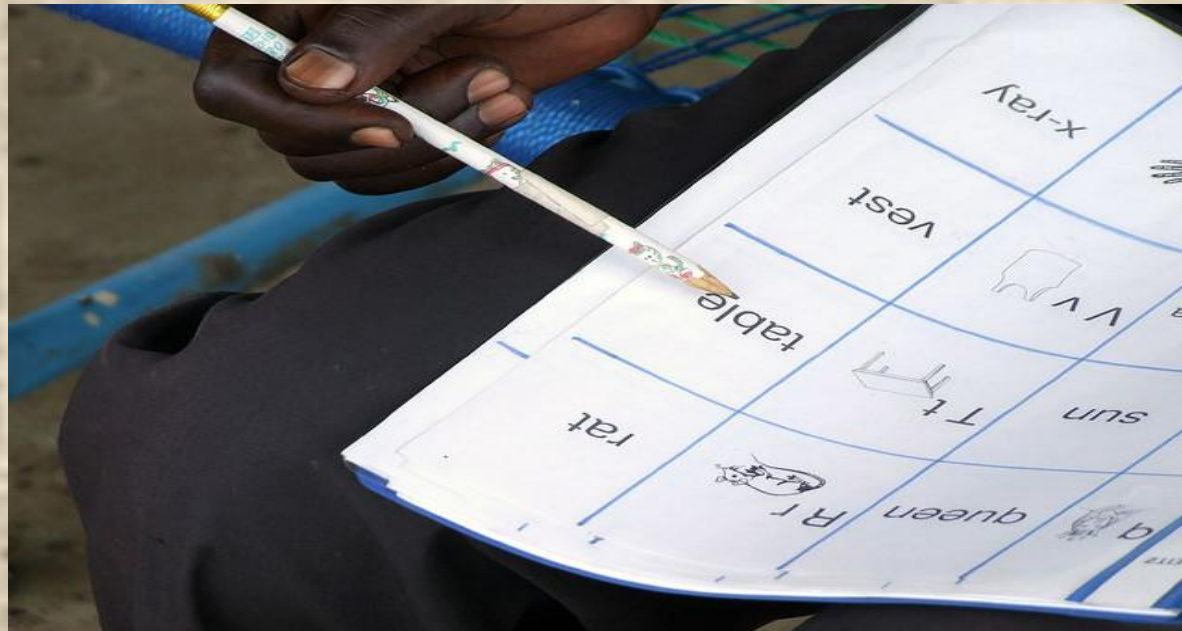

Additional classes

- In English schools carefully think leisure and additional classes for students. Every student can take part in sporting and cultural events. Schools provide an impressive range of extra-curricular activities and clubs. Students can swim in the pool, go to gym, play tennis and basketball and of course main game of UK, - football

Marking system in UK

ABCDEFGG, A - is the highest score, and G - the lowest. There is also a rating of U Unclassified ie unsatisfactory, in the case of this evaluation in the exam, it is believed that he was not handed over.

Школьная форма

- In the UK, school uniforms first appeared during the reign of King Henry VIII (1509 - 1547) . It was blue , as it was believed that wearing such colors should teach children to have humility , and the fabric of this color was the cheapest .
- In modern Britain , each school has its own form, more over, widely used school symbol. In the London School " Elizabeth Garrett Anderson " students are encouraged to participate in developing their own uniforms . This approach allows better account of the wishes of children , and to make school uniforms really comfortable and dressy .

School rules

- Food and beverages are prohibited in the computer lab.
- The basic rule of all educational institutions in England, respect, treat others the way I wanted them to treat you. And of course respect your friends, and teachers

Спасибо за внимание!