- This is the portrait of an ideal friend by one of readers of the 'Harvey Comics'
- I think that an ideal friend is a person who I can have great fun with.
- When I'm in trouble he or she always can cheer me up.
- He or she is the one who I can turn to when I have problems or need advice. I can talk all my problems through with him or her.
- He or she can keep secrets. The ideal friend is kind, considerate, supportive, responsible loyal and brainy.
- He or she is a person I don't need a break from. I can always rely on my friend. We have similar interests and have a good laugh together.
- I chose the proverb:
- 'Make new friends and help the old, one is silver and the other gold'
- This proverb says that true friends must stand by each other (no matter what), forgive each other, be always there when you're in trouble and never betray each other.
- True Friends.
- They are considerate and brainy.
- Supportive, loyal and responsible,
- Who you are never bored with.
- They are true friends.
