

Reputational risk and its cases

Performed by:
Ganbat Khaliun
Supervised by:
Kovaleva E.B.

CONTENT

1. RISK MANAGEMENT AND TYPES OF RISKS

2. REPUTATION RISK AS ONE
OF THE MAIN RISKS

3. REPUTATION RISK CASES

TYPES OF RISKS IN BANKING

CREDIT RISK

MARKET RISK

OPERATIONAL RISK

REPUTATIONAL RISK

IMPORTANCE OF REPUTATION

- ⌘ Employees: Are more loyal to a company with good reputation. Help with recruiting
- ⌘ Investors and business partners: Will take risk in a company that they can trust based upon its reputation. (More than 90% think about reputation in investment decisions: 40% care about reputation, 50% care partially).
- ⌘ Lawmakers and regulators: Reputation can help lessen the legal burden on a company.
- ⌘ Public at large: Preserve —social license to operate
- ⌘ Customers and suppliers: Support loyalty to company
- ⌘ Competition: Barrier to entry

Managing reputation risks

Vision expansion

Employee belief

Employee satisfaction

Knowledge banks

Enterprisewide solutions

Analytics

Social media

Reputation Risk Cases

Brent Spa

Fuel price protests

Onshore drilling operations

Changing rescue and recovery

Conclusion

Building a financial institution's reputation may take years, but it certainly can be damaged or even destroyed very quickly.

Reputational risk exists in a combination of factors that financial institutions face every day

THANKS!

