A (personal) mtDNA view of the peopling of the world by Homo sapiens

The maternal lineages of all living humans coalesce in 'mitochondrial Eve', born in South or East Africa about 130,000 years ago. Initially, Homo sapiens spread mainly within Africa. Some early modern fossil locations dating from this period are indicated on the map.

The Chicago Black Ghetto has not disappeared as Chicago has been undergoing the 1990s economic boom. According to 2000 census figures, the ghetto has stabilized as two large areas on the west and south side of Chicago. The yellow marks census tracts that are between 90% and 100% Black. The dark grey areas, mainly in the suburbs, are 90%-100% white. The bright blue areas are 90%-100% Hispanic. Red areas are 50%-90% Asian.
