
SOURCES OF LAW

Sources of Law are an aggregate of social factors creating the law (state classes, ideology, etc.), forms of expression of state's will which are necessary to give it the character of law (law, decree, resolution, etc.)

SOURCES OF LAW

Sources of law are only acts
having legal significance;

all other acts such as declarations,
statements, and appeals are not considered as sources.

HIERARCHY OF SOURCES OF LAW

