Remember:

Grammar has meaning!

Different grammar tenses are used in different situations or contexts and they carry different meanings.

For example . . .

- Use the simple past for action that happened in the past and is:

over, done,
finished!

- Use the present perfect for action that started in the past, but ...

is still true
today.

- The simple past always refers to an action or situation that is finished.
- The present perfect connects the past and the present. It is used to show that an action or situation in the past:
 - continues today, OR
 - might happen again

Compare the meaning of these two sentences:

1. Sara lived in Boston for 5 years.
2. Sara has lived in Boston for 5 years.

The first sentence uses:

Simple Past

The second sentence uses:

Present Perfect

LinguaLike

Sara lived in Boston for 5 years.

Meaning: by using the simple past tense, we mean that Sara started living in Boston 5 years ago . . .

AND . . . then she moved!

Now she lives in a different city, like Paris.

Remember, the simple past is used for a situation that is over, finished, done!

LinguaLike

Sara has lived in Boston for 5 years.

Meaning: by using the present perfect tense, we mean that Sara began living in Boston 5 years ago . . .

AND . . . she still lives there.

Remember, present perfect:

connects the past with the present.

LinguaLike

- Use the simple past with time words like:

- yesterday

- last Saturday, week, month, year, etc.

- _____ ago

- when I was...

- in 1990 (past date)

- Use the present perfect with time words like:

- recently/lately

- since ...

- so far this week, month, year, etc.

Additional notes about present perfect:

- We often use present perfect to say that something happened sooner than expected.

Example:

Jan: Don't forget to mail that letter.

Tom: I've already mailed it.

LinguaLike

- We often use present perfect to say that we have never done something at any time in the past.

Example:

I have never visited London. But someday, I hope to travel there.

LinguaLike

- We often use present perfect with the expression: "This is the first time."

Example:

Leonard is nervous. This is the first time he has flown on an airplane!

LinguaLike

- We often use present perfect with “ever” and “never.”

Example:

Patricia: Have you ever played tennis?

Linda: No, I’ve never played before, but I would like to learn!

Remember!

If you are talking about a specific time in the past (yesterday, last month, etc.), you cannot use the present perfect.

In these cases, use the simple past.
