

Socialization on the life way

By Temudzhin Manzhikov, Elena
Andreeva, Vladislav Massino, Alexandr
Knyazev, Alexandr Emanov, Pavel
Makhnev

Socialization

a continuing process whereby an individual acquires a personal identity a continuing process whereby an individual acquires a personal identity and learns the norms, values, behavior, and social a continuing process whereby an individual acquires a personal identity and learns the norms, values, behavior, and social skills appropriate to a particular culture or society.

Nursery

Nursery

- communicate with the peers
- behave without parents' help
- form own opinion of social surroundings
- parents weigh down nursery school with their child's upbringing
- teaching staff is not expert enough
- educators, psychologists, logopedists, etc. take the place of family

Primary school

Primary school

- Learn how to act
- Behave according to new rules
- Become members of a group
- Begin to break away

Comprehensive school

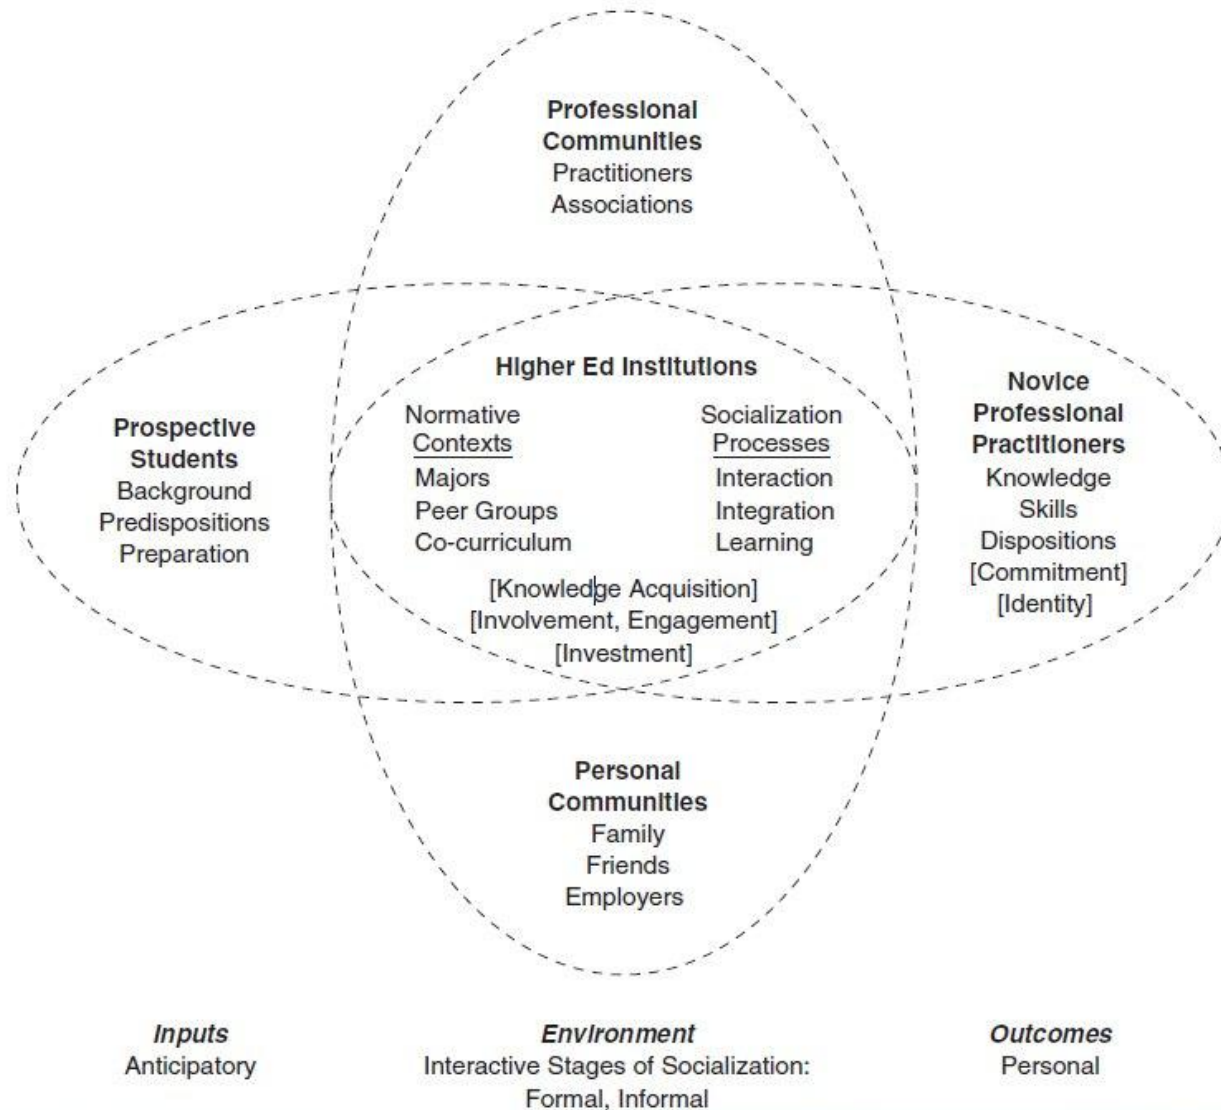

Comprehensive school

- Understanding
- Dividing into groups
- Making personality more popular
- Moral behaviour

University

University

And something more..

Thank you!