In this card I can see an old woman. Judging by the picture she is very tired because she is carrying 2 heavy bags. Probably she is going from the market or the shop. I think, she is 60 or 70 years old. She is slim. She has long grey hair, gathered on the back of her head. She is wearing in purple dress and light-green shoes. The bags are red. Perhaps, she has no children or just they are too busy to help her, we don't know exactly.

In the next card I can see a little boy. He took one of her heavy bags. He is short, maybe he is 6 or 7 years old. He is wearing in red t-shirt, blue trousers and light shoes. He has short black hair, round face. Probably he is her grandson or just a passerby. It doesn't matter! Just he wanted to help an old woman. The old woman's face is changed. She looks very happy. So, in conclusion I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere. If I were in his/her place I would do the same

In this card I can see a little boy who is going along the road. He is short, he has black short hair and round face. To my mind it is summer, because the boy is wearing a red t-shirt, blue trousers and light shoes. The leaves of the trees are green. I can also see 100$ banknote lying on the ground in front of the boy. The boy's face is surprised. Perhaps, he is in a doubt what to do?

In the next card I can see this little boy giving the money to his mother found by him. His mother looks very happy, she is smiling and taking the money from her son. His mother is very beautiful, she is slim. She has long chestnut hair, gathered on the back of her head. She is wearing in white blouse and light-blue skirt, with apron and pink shoes. So, in conclusion, I would like to say that it's so nice that the boy gave the money to his mother. If I were in his place I would do the same. (your opinion)

In this card I can see some passengers in the bus. Three of them are sitting and one old woman is standing near them. There is an old woman on the left side of the bus. She has long grey hair gathered on the back of the head. She is wearing a green suit and green shoes. She is holding a red bag. Judging by the picture she looks very tired and is looking at the sitting people.

There are three persons on a bus seat. On the left side I can see an old man sitting on the seat. He has a red cap on his head. He has a moustache. He is wearing a blue shirt dark-green trousers and brown shoes. He looks sad and is sitting holding his arms crossed. Perhaps he is going from the work. In the middle of the seat we can see a little boy. He has a short black hair and round face. He is wearing a red t-shirt, blue trousers and light shoes. There is a young woman on the right side of the seat. She is slim. She has a long, dark curly hair. She is wearing a white blouse, a red scarf on her neck, brown trousers and brown shoes on a high heel. She is reading a book and isn't looking at an old woman. It's so pity and it's so bad that they are sitting and the old woman is standing near them. If I were in their place I would give in my seat.

In the next card I can see the same picture. The same situation in the bus but the boy gave his seat to the old woman. Well done! There is an old man on the same seat on the left. There is an old woman instead of little boy's seat. The boy is standing on the left side of the seats. The young woman sitting on the right side of the seat disappeared. Probably she has gone off bus. In conclusion, I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere and every day. If I were in his place I would do the same.

In this card I can see 4 pairs of shoes, lying on the floor. To my mind this is an ordinary situation in each flat or house. When we enter the flat we usually take off our shoes in the hall. But we often forget to put on our shoes in order. Judging by the picture the shoes are lying everywhere in disorder. It's so bad! On the top of the card I can see blue men's shoes for casual wearing in summer or early autumn. Then on the right side I can see brown men's boots for wearing in autumn or spring. On the left side of the card I can see nice, violet, women's shoes for casual wearing. On the foreground of the card we can see black shoes for men. In my opinion they are for summer wearing. What about size of the shoes I can't say exactly. It seems to me they are for adults. That's all!

In the next card I can see the same situation with shoes. In comparison with the previous card the shoes are lying in order. I can also see the same boy I had seen before in the cards. Judging by the picture he is putting the shoes in order. It's so nice that he is helping his mother or grandmother about the house. In conclusion I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere and every day. If I were in his place I would do the same! I would put all the things in order, I would help my mother, I would clean the flat ... If we love our parents we should respect and help them!

In this card I can see a boy of 7 or 8 years old. Judging by the picture he is carrying a table with difficulty alone. He looks very tired because the table is too heavy for him. He is short. Probably he is a pupil of 4th or 5th grade. He has short curly black hair, round face and black skin. He is wearing in light green t-shirt where is written the letter ‘S’. I can also see his light blue trousers blue shoes. Perhaps he is carrying the table from one room to another one. I think this is an ordinary situation we can see everywhere and every day. In the next card I can see the same little boy who was carrying a heavy table. Now one boy is helping him I had seen before in previous cards. Well done! It is the same boy with red t-shirt and blue trousers. In this picture they are carrying the table together. I think it is easier to carry together than by one. In conclusion I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere and very often for example at home, at school at an office. If I were in his place I would do the same. I would help my classmate, friend or just to anybody

In this card I can see a vase with withered flowers. Judging by the picture there is no water in the vase.. Perhaps, they are 2 chamomiles - orange and yellow. The flowers lowered their heads down because of lack of water. What a pity! Just I want to say to everybody: Water the plants and flowers at home, at school, in the garden or in the yard, PLEASE!

In the next card I can see the same boy we had seen before in previous cards. Judging by the picture he is pouring the water into the vase. Well done! There is a tap and sink in front of him. Perhaps, he is at home in his kitchen or bathroom. There are 2 flowers on the right side of the picture on the sink. They are chamomiles we had seen before. In conclusion I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere at home, at school, at an office, in the country in summer cottage. So, I would like to describe this picture. Judging by the picture it's summer because the boy is dressed in summer dress. To my mind the boy is standing outside not inside because I can see a green grass. I can also see some words written on the wall behind the boy. It's so pity! It's so bad! In my opinion, we shouldn't do this kind of deed. All the walls of the buildings should be clean and beautiful. We should keep our room, our flat, our class, our school, our city in a good condition. I suppose, the boy is looking and is thinking what to do. I hope, he is going to clean the wall.

Well, let's look at the next picture. So, what is going on ... Judging by the picture the boy we had seen before in previous card is cleaning the wall with a duster. Well done! As we remember he is always doing good deeds! As they say: “Where is the will there is a way” It's an English proverb. The boy had found a duster somewhere. In conclusion, I would like to say that this kind of situation we can see everywhere.
