

What is Hot with the Young Generation? Subculture

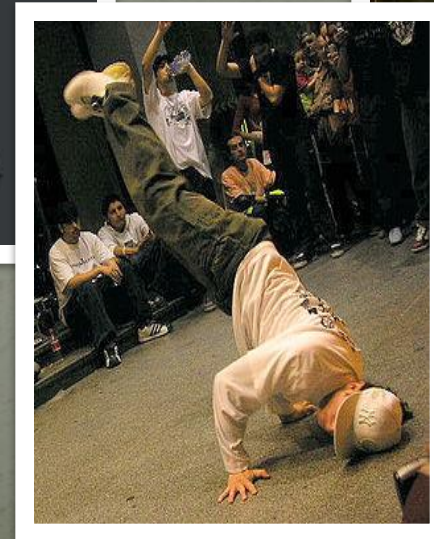

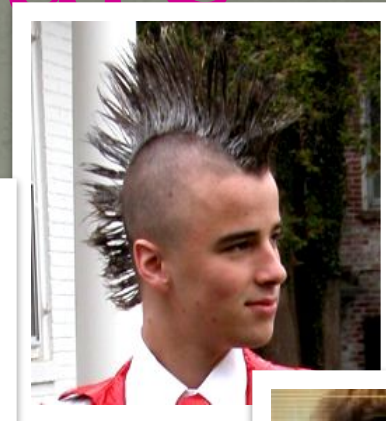

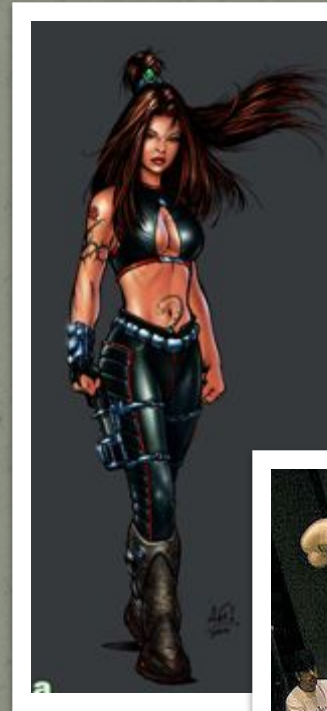

Subculture

A subculture is a group of people with the same interests, the same style and they like the same music.

Subculture

- Hacker
- Rocker
- Punk
- Raver
- Goth
- Hip-Hop

A man in a dark suit and white shirt is pulling open his shirt to reveal a black t-shirt underneath. The t-shirt has the word "hacker" written on it in white. The man is also wearing a blue and yellow patterned tie. The word "Hacker" is written in large yellow letters at the top of the image.

Hacker

- They are the ‘wizards’ of the computer community; people with a deep understanding of how their computers work, and can do things with them that seem ‘medical’. They do not protest against their parents.

Rockers

⦿ A young person who wears leather jacket, army boots and a cowboy hat just to show off. He is associated with something rebellious.

Punk

- ⦿ A young person who dresses in a shocking way to express his or her identity. He or she has brightly coloured hair and wears metal chains. The person is thought to rebel against the society. The music is aggressive. They reject everything.

Raver

- ⦿ There are the folks who use computer – made, synthesized music, and drugs to create massive all-night dance parties in empty warehouses. They like to be in a collective. They want to try out all sort of options and are thought to be violent.

Goth

- ◎ The members of this subculture wear the blackest black, with a lot of silver jewellery and have very black hair and look as this and pale as possible. The members gather together to read Bram Stoker and talk about being vampires, and about the end of the world.

Hip-Hop

A breakdancer in a light blue long-sleeved shirt and dark shorts is performing a handstand on a stage. The dancer's legs are raised high in the air, forming a wide 'V' shape. The stage is illuminated with green spotlights, and a crowd of people is visible in the background. The floor has a large, colorful graphic design.

Hip hop culture (or hip-hop) is a cultural movement that formed during the 1970s among African American youths residing in the South Bronx in New York City. It is characterized by four distinct elements, all of which represent the different manifestations of the culture: rap music (oral), turntablism or "DJing" (aural), b-boying (physical) and graffiti art (visual).

Even while it continues to develop globally in myriad styles, these four foundational elements provide coherence to hip hop culture. The term is often used in a restrictive fashion as synonymous only with the oral practice of rap music.
