

A collage of various historical buildings and landmarks, including cathedrals, castles, and ancient ruins, with the text "Sweet Dreams" overlaid in a large, stylized, yellow font. The background features several overlapping photographs of famous sites like the Colosseum, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, and various European cathedrals. The text "Sweet Dreams" is written in a large, bold, yellow, cursive-style font across the center of the image.

BIG BEN

The tower is one of London's most famous landmarks. The tower holds the largest four-faced chiming clock in the world and is the third-tallest free-standing clock tower.

The origin of the nickname Big Ben is the subject of some debate. The nickname was applied first to the Great Bell; it may have been named after Sir Benjamin Hall.
