

The life of presidents and kings

Presented by student of 51 group

Mustafaeva N.M

Teacher: Smirnova T.A.

The President of the Russian Federation

The President of the Russian Federation is the head of state, supreme commander-in-chief and holder of the highest office within the Russian Federation. The current president of Russia is Dmitry Medvedev.

The President of the Russian Federation

The President of the Russian Federation

- Residence Moscow Kremlin
- Appointer Direct popular vote
- Term length four years (2012-present);
renewable once consecutively
- Website (Russian) президент.рф
(English) eng.kremlin.ru

Political affiliation

None of the Russian presidents to date ever were a member of a political party in office or later. However, former (and now incoming) president Vladimir Putin is the nominal head of the government-created United Russia, the dominant Russian political party.

Transport

The land transport services for the Russian President is provided by the Special Purpose Garage (SPG).

Limousines, ZiL, Mercedes-Benz, Escort cars, Honorary escort (motorcycles), Mercedes-Benz, Chevrolet, BMW;

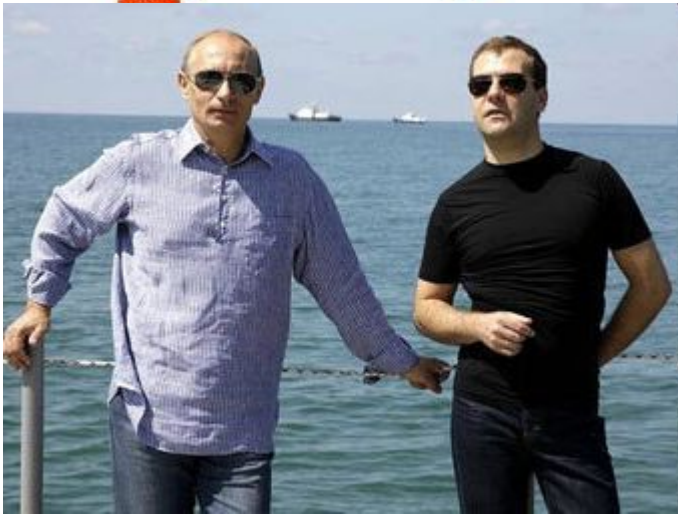

Air transport services for the President are provided by airline company Rossiya.

Ilyushin Il-96-300PU used by the President of Russia for long-distance air travel, President's main aircraft

Salary

The salary of Russian President Dmitry Medvedev is 67 thousand euros a year

The President of the United States of America

The President of the United States of America is the head of state and head of government of the United States. Incumbent Barack Obama since January 20, 2009.

A stylized world map is visible in the background, with a prominent red banner at the top. The banner contains the title of the slide in large, bold, black text. The map uses a color palette of reds, oranges, and yellows for the continents.

The President of the United States of America

- Style Mr. President (informal)
 The Honorable (formal)
 His Excellency (diplomatic, outside the U.S.)
- Residence White House Washington, D.C.
- Term length Four years renewable once
- Salary $400,000 annually
- Website barackobama.com

The President of the United States of America

- Born Barack Hussein Obama II, August 4, 1961 Honolulu, Hawaii, U.S.
- Political party Democratic
- Spouse(s) Michelle Robinson (1992–present)
- Children Malia (born 1998), Sasha (born 2001)
- Residence Chicago, Illinois (Private)
- Alma mater Occidental College, Columbia University (B.A.), Harvard Law School (
- Profession Community organizer, Lawyer Constitutional law professor
- Religion Christianity

Transport

The Presidential state car is the official state car used by the President of the United States.

Air Force One is the official air traffic control call sign of any United States Air Force aircraft carrying the President of the United States

The king of England

Elizabeth II, born April 21, 1926, is the eldest daughter of George VI and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon. She married Philip Mountbatten, a distant cousin, in 1947; the pair have four children: She has reigned for forty-six years, and appears capable of remaining on the throne for quite some time.

The king of England

Elizabeth has managed to maintain a division between her public and private life. She is the first monarch to send her children to boarding schools in order to remove them from the ever-probing media. She has a strong sense of duty and diligence and dispatches her queenly business with great candor, efficiency and dignity. Her knowledge of current situations and trends is uncannily up to date, often to the embarrassment of her Prime Ministers.

The king of England

- Reign 6 February 1952 – present
- Coronation 2 June 1953
- Heir apparent Charles, Prince of Wales
- House House of Windsor
- Religion Church of England
Church of Scotland

The king of England

Elizabeth's personal fortune has been the subject of speculation for many years. Forbes magazine estimated her net worth at around $450 million in 2010. Sandringham House, Elizabeth's private residence in Sandringham, Norfolk

Thank you for your attention!