WINTER OLYMPICS

- Despite the protests against the sports community of regular summer and winter Olympic Games in Nazi Germany , the IOC did not revoke its decision. Nevertheless , many famous athletes (including Olympic champions : John Shea, wife Brunet and others) refused to participate in the Games . Fourth Winter Olympics (1936). Olympic Winter Games in 1936 were held in two resort towns of Garmisch and Bavarian Partenkirchen . For the first time the Games were included competitions in alpine ski races (men and women) , as well as men's ski relay. Combinators debut was not without scandal. Ski instructor was banned from performing at the Olympics - on the grounds that they are not considered amateurs.
