

Wedding in Italy

Tania Lerro Photography

Italy - the scene of one of the most beautiful love stories - of Romeo and Juliet.

Italian traditions

The presence of an engagement ring with a diamond - one of the most common Italian wedding traditions.

tradition of passing the bride and groom walk up to the church on their wedding day.

Almost all months were considered favorable for the wedding, except May. Auspicious day of the week for marriage - Sunday. Adverse - Tuesday and Friday.

In Italy also common wedding tradition that the bride and groom need to saw a log together in two two-handed saw after the wedding. This is - a sign of cooperation in

On the day of the wedding the bridegroom came to the bride, who said goodbye to their parents.

~~Funeral rite was accompanied by ritual weeping.~~

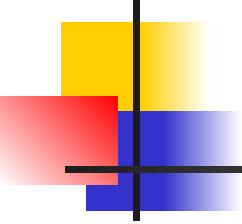

After the wedding at the church showered with young wheat, coins, rice, flowers, confetti, etc. Italians believed that such a ceremony the newlyweds bring harmony and happiness in family life, the imminent addition to the family.

Italians pay special attention to the wedding banquet. At the banquet, guests receive a special honor. The bride's father welcomes visitors and gives the waiter invited liqueurs.

Near the plates on the table each guest is a gift – usually a bag of candy 5, which symbolize happiness, luck, love of a young couple.

Authentic Italian weddings reflect the culture of the people. This pizza, wine, almonds, walnuts, etc.

Italian wedding are usually decorated with ribbons and flowers. For example, the flower arrangements on the tables, ribbons on the walls and chairs.

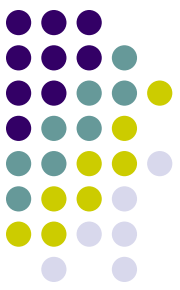

The wedding ended with fun dancing. First dance bride and groom and then the bride to the guests.

After the wedding ceremony was accomplished accompany the bride and groom to the marriage bed.

standing up ": bridal mother entered the room, woke the young and bring them breakfast.

On the day of the wedding the couple should not see each other until meeting at the church.

Rain on your wedding day by the old Italian legend brings happiness.

Since the days of ancient Rome, it is the custom to make the bride after the wedding in the house on his hands.

Just before the end of the wedding night, the couple is traditionally divided into happiness glasses.

Newlyweds should plant a sapling olive, as in Italy, the olive tree is considered an attribute of prosperity and well-being.

Overall, I must say, the Italian wedding - it is a lush and beautiful

