

Why is it important to learn English

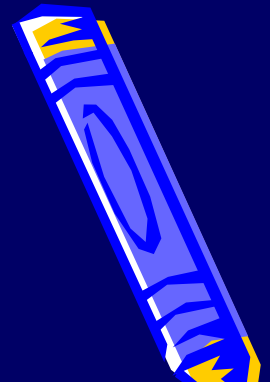

English is the language of international communication!

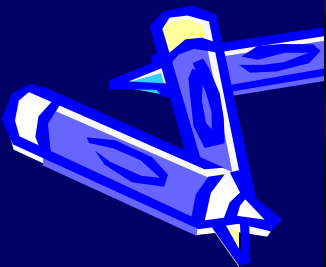

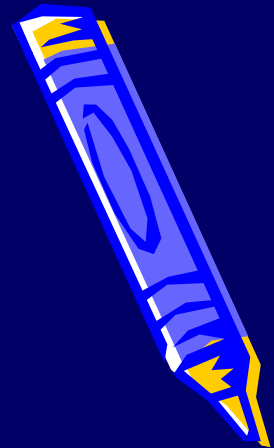

- Many peoples learn English because it's interesting for them to know foreign countries, their cultures and traditions.

- If you want to be famous you should learning English. If you want to be a good specialist you should learn and practices English.

- You should improve your speaking skills and you will be best in English.

The End