

REPORTED SPEECH

- Reported speech refers to using a noun clauses to report what someone has said. No quotation marks are used.

- Notice the changes in the verb forms from quoted speech to reported speech in the following examples:

Quoted speech:

She said, "I watched TV every day."

Reported speech:

She said (that) she watched TV every day.

Quoted speech:

She said, "I am watcing TV."

Reported speech:

She said (that) she was watcing TV.

To report what someone said ,we use a reporting
verb followed by an
optional THAT.

FOR EXAMPLE:

He said that he wants us to read Chapter six.

Jeff said that he was coming here.

I am training.

She said that she was training.

When you report
somebody's word using (said ,asked,etc.) you usually change the tence to one further
back in the past.

CHANGES:

1. Direct speech:

'I ll put the letters in the post.'

Change:

will to would

Reported speech:

He said we would put the letters in the post.

2. Direct speech:

'I work for insurance company.

They said they couldn't borrow any more money from the bank.

4. Direct speech:

'We ve moved to a bigger house.'

Change:

have moved to had moved

Reported speech:

They said they had moved to a bigger house.

5. Direct speech:

'I must pay the gas bill.'

Change:

must to had to

Reported

speech:

She said she had to pay the gas bill.

NO CHANGES:

Some verb tenses used in direct speech do not change in reported speech. The 'reporting' verb is often in the present tense.

The verbs do not normally changed when:

1. reporting a present state of affairs e.g.

Direct speech:

'The cost of living here is high.'

Reported speech:

The reporter said that the cost of living here is high.

2. reporting things which are always true e.g.

Direct speech:

'It's always cold at this time of year.'

Reported speech:

Mary says it's always cold at this time of year.

3. reported thing we believe (or someone believes) will happen
e.g.

Direct speech:

'They're going to sack 300 workers next week.'

Reported speech:

The union representative said they are going to sack 300 workers next week.

4. They are modal structures ; would, could, might, ought, and should, e.g.

Direct speech:

'You might be mistaken.'

Reported speech:

She said (that) he might be mistaken.
