

aerial

a piece of equipment consisting of a long thin piece of metal, used to receive radio or television signals chimney

a tube or passage that takes smoke from a fire up through a building and out through the roof roof

the top outer part of a building hedge

a line of bushes or small trees growing close together around a garden or field a building for keeping a car in, especially one that is connected to or near your house an area of grass that is cut short, especially in someone's garden a door in a fence or wall that you go through to enter or leave a place a large flat object you open when you want to enter or leave a building, room, or vehicle a set of steps that allow you to go from one level of a building to another a frame in a wall with glass in it that lets light and air into a room and lets you see what is outside a shelf under a window

fence

a flat upright structure made of wood or wire that surrounds an area of land an area in a garden or park where flowers are grown a way from one place to another that people can walk along garden shed

a small building for storing garden tools, bicycles, and other equipment

