

How to write a letter

- Writing a letter can be easy if you follow a few simple rules.
- Take your time and think carefully about WHO you are writing to.

Starting off.....

- Correct addresses: YOUR address (right)
- Their address (left - but only if it is an official letter, not personal)
- Date
- Dear Sir or Madam (or their actual name...Jim, Anne,Mr.Jones, Miss.Peters, etc..)
- Indent the first word under ‘Madam’

1st paragraph....

- Why are you writing to them... "I am writing to you to because....."
- Explain who YOU are....
- Be polite! "I hope you don't mind me writing to you but I had tell you about.."

eg. "I must inform you that I am not happy with...."

2nd paragraph.....

This is the MAIN section of your letter

- You can have more than one paragraph
- If it is a persuasive letter, then take 1 or 2 points of persuasion for each paragraph
- Don't make one enormous paragraph- it looks boring!
- Use connectives (firstly, secondly, next,...)
- State each point, then back it up eg. I believe Italy will win the World Cup because they have extreme talent and have greater fitness.

2nd paragraph....cont.

- Offer your own opinion on things. eg. I firmly believe that custard is the finest food because it is smooth yet refined
- Use any planning sheet you have to tick off each point you are making.
- Use facts to back up your arguments eg. In a recent school survey, 94% of boys would like Kylie as their girlfriend.

Last paragraph.....

- This is a concluding paragraph eg. To sum up, I would say that...
- Give an overall view of the letter. eg. What I am trying to say to you is that I would dearly love you to come and stay with us.

Signing off.....

- If you know them personally - Yours sincerely
- If you don't know them - Yours faithfully
