

Present Simple
versus
Present Continuous

What is the difference between these two sentences?

Present Continuous

- My brother is playing football with his friends.

- He plays football every Sunday.

Present Simple

When do we use the Present Continuous Tense?

1. For actions happening at the moment of speaking.

Examples:

- You are learning English now.
- Are you sleeping?
- I am sitting.
- Is he sitting or standing?
- They are reading their books.
- They are not watching television.
- What are you doing?
- Why aren't you doing your homework?

When do we use the Present Continuous Tense?

2. For longer actions in progress.

Examples:

- I am studying to become a doctor.
- I am reading the book Tom Sawyer.
- I am not reading any books right now.
- Are you working on any special projects at work?
- Aren't you teaching at the university now?

When do we use the Present Continuous Tense?

3. To indicate that something will or will not happen in the near future.

Examples:

- I am meeting some friends after work.
- I am not going to the party tonight.
- Is he visiting his parents next weekend?
- Isn't he coming with us tonight?

P.S.: In this case, you must give the time of the action.

When do we use the Present Simple Tense?

USE 1 - Repeated Actions

To express the idea that an action is repeated or usual. The action can be a habit, a hobby, a daily event, a scheduled event or something that often happens.

Examples:
