MPs have condemned 34 terror plots in the UK since 2007, the Home Secretary revealed yesterday. One was potentially worse than the 2005 London attacks which killed 52 civilians and injured more than 500, he said. The vast majority were cooked up by "devils who live here", Mr. Cameron told MPs during an unprecedented public hearing televised from Parliament on Page Nine.

SUPER PILL IS KEY TO LIVING LONGER

Tomato-based drug can fight cancer, arthritis, diabetes and heart disease

By Jo Wiley Health Editor

A SUPER pill made out of tomatoes could hold the key to beating arthritis, diabetes, heart disease and even cancer. British scientists believe the tablet harnesses the health-boosting properties of the Mediterranean diet. Not only can it help unlog fat-busting power to slash cholesterol levels. Now, a Cambridge University study has shown the tablet also boosts the efficiency of blood vessels, improves blood flow and softens arteries hardened with age.
