

Talking about what people are doing (Present Continuous Tense)

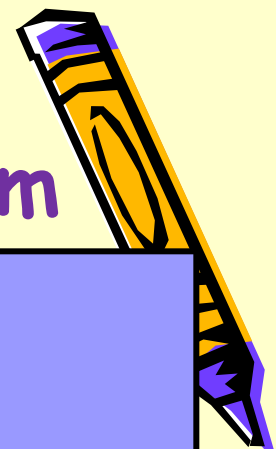

By Lorena Caro

Affirmative and negative form

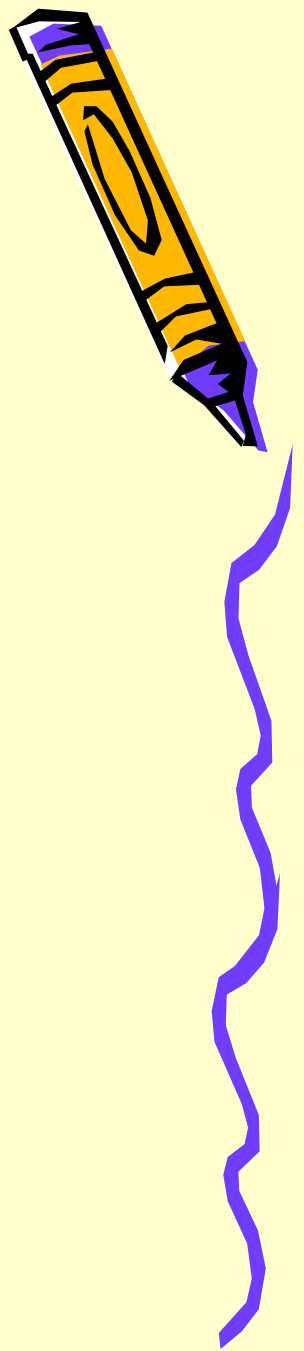

I	am	playing
You	are
We They
He	is
She
It

I	am not	playing
You	are not
We
They
He	is not
She
It

Interrogative form

Am	I	playing?
Are	you we they
Is	he she it

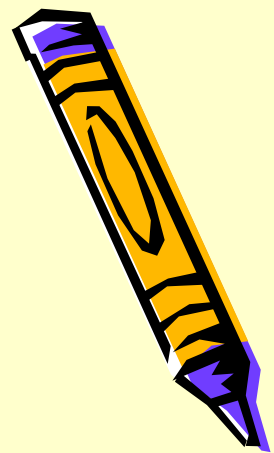

Activities

- Complete the following sentences using the present continuous in affirmative form.

Example: What is he doing?

He is playing football

What is he doing?

_____ (run)

What is she doing?

_____ (draw)

What are they doing?

_____ (dance)

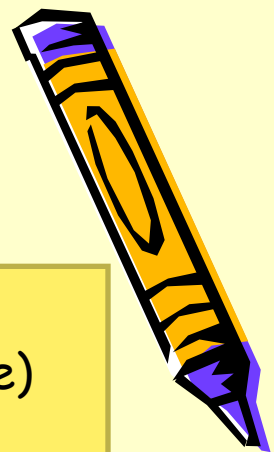

What is he doing?

_____ (read)

What is she doing?

_____ (call)

2) Now, complete the following sentences using the present continuous in negative form.

are they running?

_____ (run)

is Homero drinking?

_____ (drink)

Is Martin running?

_____ (run)

Is Pablo sleeping?

_____ (sleep)

Is Peter watching tv?

_____ (watch)

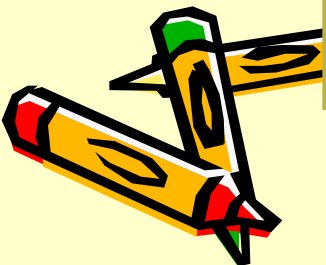

3) Complete the following sentences using the present continuous in interrogative form.

They are watching t.v

George is writing a story

It is raining

Felipe and Carlos are thinking

