

А Вы окунаетесь на Крещение???

Мой поход на Крещение начался
так.....

Вот я уже и на месте....
