RECOMMENDATIONS

- PR, advertising & event

- Working out a separate Salon web site in Russian managed in Moscow with information refreshed regularly during a year (at least once a month)
- Dividing PR and event budgets
- Working out event program – new events each year
- Inviting a new outstanding participant – exhibition headliner
- Arranging additional ad options in Gostiny Dvor: separate street banner, broadcasting partners' ad trailers on plasma screens during Salon events (amphitheatre area)

- Image & positioning

- Logotype in Russian
- Separate web site
- Salon's own street ad
- General concept of exhibition area – design, more cozy and elegant atmosphere
- Prospect separation from Food Show Festival

- Management

- Drawing up detailed project estimate in proper time
- Working out project schedule along with efficient sharing of responsibilities and authority

- Personnel

- Salon representative in Moscow – selling exhibition areas, leading arrangement & technical issues concerning the exhibition (working with mounting service, controlling mounting & dismantling, exhibitors coming & leaving, security, cleaning)
- Fund-raising curator in Moscow (sponsor packages sale should be started in February)
- Defile image curator
- Technical curator of defile
- Salesman for professional master-classes
- Supervisors responsible for events arrangement during the Salon

▪ Chocolate defile

- Appointing defile curator (person of consequence) responsible for the event image and participants (selecting designers, models, VIP; supporting image and developing PR in fashion world, etc.)
- Appointing technical curator of defile responsible for defile arrangement
 - Supervising partners, designers, pastry chefs, VIP models during defile arrangement: providing and gathering administration and technical data (schedules, defile mechanics, sizes gathering, VIP assignment for French chocolatiers, etc.)
 - Backstage work: meeting defile participants, distributing badges (including special badges for backstage), controlling order of appearing on the scene
 - Arranging work of hairdressers and visagistes
 - Supervising dresses: controlling readiness of dresses for demonstration and their safety, providing mannequins, name boards, etc.
 - Making comfortable backstage conditions for defile participants (tea, coffee, snacks, chairs, tables, racks, cloakrooms, mirrors, carpeting)
- Working out detailed plan (procedure) for defile arrangement
- Working out and conforming scenario of defile in proper time (including word-by-word text for a presenter, presenting chocolatiers as key participants of defile (having not minor importance in comparison with designers): special appearance on the stage, photo session)

▪ Exhibition

- More clear exhibition zoning – beauty area, children's area, café area
- Working out admission procedure (badges, invitation cards, lists for exhibitors' coming & leaving, admission system for professional master-classes visitors)
- Working out clear exhibition security procedure
- Maintaining cleanness – increasing quantity of dustbins and cleaners (briefing cleaning company)
- Providing handling machinery and technical personnel (jack-lifts, hand carts, loaders)
