Info Page

- SAP Best Practices packages are available in the SAP Best Practices availability matrix at <http://service.sap.com/bp> (SAP Best Practices can also be used in other countries as well). In this case, you can exploit the full scope of the SAP Best Practices for your country.
- Name, release and version information
The name of the SAP Best Practices package is: "SAP Best Practices for <area> - V<version number> <release>."
 - <Area> refers to the industry/baseline or cross-industry the SAP Best Practices is intended for.
 - <release> refers to the release number of the main technical component covered by the specific SAP Best Practices version. Example: The main system component of "SAP Best Practices for Customer Relationship Management - V1.40" is SAP CRM Rel. 4.0.
 - <version number> refers to the version of SAP Best Practices. Example: "SAP Best Practices for CRM - V2.40". In this case V2 indicates that it is the second release of "SAP Best Practices for CRM" that is based on the main component SAP CRM Rel. 4.0. The next version then will accordingly be named "SAP Best Practices for CRM - V3.40", and so on. When SAP Best Practices is based on a new release of the main component, the SAP Best Practices numbering again starts with "V1"; e.g. "SAP Best Practices for CRM - V1.50" (the first SAP Best Practices for CRM version that is based on SAP CRM 5.0).
 - Please note: It might be possible that two different release versions of the same SAP Best Practices package are available at the same time, e.g. "SAP Best Practices Baseline Package - V1.470" and "SAP Best Practices Baseline Package - V2.470". This is due to the fact that these packages contain different country versions, e.g. the "SAP Best Practices Baseline Package - V1.470" contains the first version of the SAP Best Practices Baseline Package localized for China and the "SAP Best Practices Baseline Package - V2.470" contains the second version of the SAP Best Practices Baseline Package localized for Germany.
- Before you download a specific SAP Best Practices package, we recommend that you have a look at the content of the respective package to decide which version and release

На странице Installation and Upgrades требуемой версии SAP Best Practices выберите Installation.
