Ruslan and Ludmila

Prologue

Go search for a green oak leaved,
And to it with a gold chain bound,
A learned cat whines away the hours
By walking slowly round and round,
To right he walks, and steps a ditty:
To left he walks, and tells a tale...

What marvels there! A mermaid sitting
High in a tree, a griffin, a troll
White unknown heads more never seen by
Man's eyes, a hat on chicken feet,
Without a door, without a window,
An evil witch's lone retreat;

The woods and valleys there are teeming
With strange things... Down brings waves
That, gleaming,

Over the sandy beaches creep,

And from the clear and shining water
Step thirty goodly knights escorted
By their old Guardian, of the deep
An ancient dragon... There a dreaded

And hated foe is captive to me,
There, as all watch, for cloud banks heaved
Across the sea and o'er a plain,
A warlock bears a knight, there, weeping,
A princess sits locked in a cell,
And Gray Wolf serves her very well;

There, in a mortar, around swarming
All of itself, beneath the skies
The wicked Baba-Yaga flies;

There glows Kachkel and looks for gold...
All brethren of Russ, the Russ of old
There once was I, friends, and the cat,
As near him smelt the oak I sat
And greedily of sweet meat at my leisure,
Recaptured taken to me... With pleasure
Doe that I liked do I recall
And here and now will share with all...
