Испанское страноведение и страноведение Великобритании

Уже долгие годы в рамках аспектного обучения иностранным языкам в нашей школе учащиеся изучают два курса: "Испанское страноведение" и "Страноведение Великобритании". В основе этих курсов лежат авторские программы учителей нашей гимназии.

Курс испанского страноведения появился в 67 школе ещё в 60-е годы прошлого века. Это было связано с тем, что учебники того времени были слишком идеологизированны, тексты несли информацию о жизни Советского Союза, роли комсомола и ком. партии в жизни Советского народа и т.д.

Курс страноведения давал информацию о странах изучаемого языка, так как на других предметах, таких, как география и история, говорилось очень мало об Испании и Латинской Америке, а о поездках в эти страны не было и речи. Тем временем в нашей школе обучалось много детей кубинских военных (слушателей различных академий) и дипломатов. Школа была коллективным членом общества дружбы "СССР- Куба".

В 90-е годы прошлого века, в результате поступательного развития школы и понимания важности изучения английского языка, как языка международного общения, 67 школа становится школой с углублённым изучением двух иностранных языков.

Именно тогда появились предпосылки для аспектного изучения английского языка с курсами английской литературы и страноведения Великобритании.

Целью курсов "Испанское страноведение" и "Страноведение Великобритании" является формирование социо-культурной компетенции в процессе изучения иностранного языка. Кроме того, старшеклассникам, отправляющимся в зарубежные поездки, необходимо знать историю, культуру, традиции и особенности стран изучаемого языка. В процессе изучения данных курсов учащиеся могут использовать знания, полученные на уроках истории, обществознания, географии, литературы и использовать их в составлении творческих работ. Изучая культурное и историческое наследие Великобритании и Испании, учащиеся лучше понимают культурные традиции, исторические и политические события своей страны. Данные курсы воспитывают толерантность к различным религиям, традициям и культурам, а также способствуют развитию творческой личности учащихся.

В ходе изучения курсов учащиеся готовят монологические высказывания по темам, выполняют письменные тексты по аудио и видеоматериалам. По окончании спецкурсов предлагается написать реферат или составить проект по одному из изучаемых языков, по теме, соответствующей интересам учащегося. Творческая работа является альтернативой итоговому зачёту по темам.

Лучшие работы учащихся представляются на ежегодной научно-практической конференции старшеклассников. Презентация творческих работ сопровождается разного рода наглядностью: постеры, журналы-буклеты, а также используется электронный вариант презентации.

Уже традиционным стало участие в научно-практических конференциях других учебных заведений, например НПК школы Сервантеса, 56 гимназии, Первой гимназии. А также в конкурсе портфолио школ-лабораторий. (На первом же конкурсе портфолио было представлено две работы на английском и испанском языках.)

Red Nose

Day

For one day every two years Britain goes crazy (people all over the country (even police officers and teachers) wear red noses and do silly things. It's Red Nose Day - the day when doing really stupid things can raise loads of money for charity.

the Idea

It was British comic Henry Henry who came up with the idea. Why not have fun and help people at the same time? He thought other people would like the idea and in 1988 a special organization - Comic Relief - was set up. Since it first started Comic Relief has raised over 500 million by involving the public and celebrities in fun events.

the big Hair Do

Every Red Nose Day has a special theme, this year's theme was - the Big Hair Do. So just before March 14th celebs and non-celebs bought horrible wigs, dyed their hair bright red and styled it in real outrageous ways.

Calvin's hair was auctioned their hair - like a lot of Daniel Radcliffe's hair (the Harry Potter star) was bid 150 pounds. Dolly the Sheep's wool (the first cloned sheep who recently died) fetched 500 pounds. All in all, the celebrity hair raised 5,500 pounds.

Crazy people.

There are usually a lot of funny events all over Britain on Red Nose Day. From comic shows on TV to public places to raise up a few pounds. This year's holiday was no exception.

On March 14th brave men up and down the country took part in fun runs, sat in bath tubs full of baked beans, went backwards, rolled up their trousers to undergo leg waxing, shaved their hair off. Comic Jack Dee stood on top of a 500 foot high pole outside London's TV Centre in spite of his fear of heights. He was helped by messages from Bill Clinton, Julia Roberts, and a moving mes. Sage from Naked. Robbie Williams. The man tried to putting a bath filled with tomatoes and a person! And kids all over the country logged their heads off Harry Potter on TV (but I hope I'll Rowling I'm too attached).

The Queen, too, joined in the fun chatting with real nose-wearing workers at a coffee cafe.

RED NOSE DAY

As you have probably guessed, the symbol of Red Nose Day is the red nose. Each year a different red nose is sold. Since 1985 there have been all kinds of noses.

There was the one that looked like a nose that changed colour when you put it on. There was the one that changed colour when you put it on. There was the one that changed colour when you put it on.

the money.

All the money raised on Red Nose Day goes to people who need it most. It goes to help children in Britain and to other people who are in need. It goes to help people who are in need. It goes to help people who are in need.

PRINCE WILLIAM:

the 'Perfect Prince'

In the 21st of June 1982, Prince William Arthur Philip James Windsor was born at St Mary's Hospital, London. The eldest son of the Prince and Princess of Wales, Diana Spencer is second in line to the throne after his father, Prince Charles.

Being a prince is not as easy as it may seem. Being a future king is even not difficult as what does the future hold for Prince William, a modern prince of the 21st century?

The British royal family has a long history. Britain has seen both successful and unsuccessful rulers, but until recently, very few people have seriously thought that Britain might one day do a monarchy. Why, then, are a lot of people in Britain who believe that Britain should get rid of the royal family? One of the main reasons is that having a monarchy is very expensive. In Britain, most royal documents, appointments and expenses are paid for by the taxpayer. A series of royal scandals, such as the divorce of Princess Diana, Prince Charles and Princess Diana, has also damaged the reputation of royal family and made many people believe that the days of the British royal family are nearly over.

Many people believe that Prince William is the only person who could save the tradition since the royal son of Princess Diana, who was deeply loved and admired. Born in the same dark suburb, British people have been his parents' first son. Prince William, whose great-grandfather was to take his mother's side, has his own, Diana and a great sense of humor, seems the only possible candidate. William also inherited his grandmother's strength of character and determination. He will not forget the joyful days of Prince William and Terry walking behind Princess Diana's coffin in 1997. Even though both boys were badly hurt and faced numerous, they managed to hold back their tears and demonstrated incredible self-control. It's already clear that William knows he can't be changed, he must be going to a different kind of education rather than a traditional Oxford education. That's why William is often called the perfect prince by the media because he needs to find something to do with his life and he doesn't say he is a prince in line to the throne and his grandmother, Queen Elizabeth II, is still alive. As well as his father, William might have to wait for about forty years before he may become king. At the moment, he is studying history at St. Andrews University in Scotland but it will not be long before he starts thinking about what he wants to do in life. Therefore, it's not surprising that there have been rumors that William does not want to be king and sees his royal status more as a burden than a blessing. This does not seem to be true. In his special birthday interview to 'Time' magazine, William said that the stories about him not wanting to be king were wrong, as it was something he was "born into" and he's "duty". Whatever the truth, it is clear that William will have to work hard to organize his life. Let's wish him very good luck!
