A close-up photograph of a bright green praying mantis perched on a vibrant yellow rose. The mantis is positioned on the left side of the frame, facing left. Its long, segmented body and raptorial front legs are clearly visible. The rose's petals are in sharp focus, showing their delicate texture and bright yellow color. The background is a solid, dark black, which makes the green of the mantis and the yellow of the rose stand out prominently. Overlaid on the center of the image is the Russian word «Размышка» in a large, stylized, metallic font with a horizontal line texture.
