BIG BEN IS THE SYMBOL OF ENGLISH WELFARE

Can people from Britain do without Big Ben?

- Perhaps meeting with London will make the Russians and the British friends

THE MAP OF LONDON

PHOTO ALBUM

WHAT MAKES LONDON FAMOUS?

1. Whose monument is in the center of Trafalgar Square?
2. What is Big Ben?

An interview with a travel agent

- -Hello, I am from school №1. My name is Roman. We are going to London on a two days trip. May I ask you some questions about London?
- Have you personally ever been to London?
- What is your general opinion about it? Is it worth seeing?
- -What exactly would you advise us to see if we in London?
- Sorry, why should we start with it? What's unusual about it?
- - Hello, of course, you are welcome.
- -Yes, I've been here many times.
- -Oh, yes. It is a wonderful city combining ancient and modern places. It made an unforgettable impression on me.
- -Oh, let me see...It's rather difficult to decide... First of all you should see Big Ben.
- -It's the symbol of London. If you don't see Big Ben you won't see anything. It's the symbol of Britain as the Spasskaya Tower in Russia. More than that Big Ben is one of the biggest clock in the world.

An interview with a travel agent

- -I've heard that the Tower is worth seeing too. There are many legends connected with it.
 - -They say there are ghosts in it... Is it so?
 - -I suppose, Anne Boleyn, Catherine Howard, Jane Grey are among them.
 - So, you advise us to visit Big Ben and the Tower...
 - Thank you for your interview. It was great to talk with you.
- You are right! The Tower is one of the best tourist attractions in London. Once it was a fortress, a castle, and even a Zoo.
 - God knows. Many People were executed there. May be their spirits are still there.
 - Perhaps..
 - I think that the Trafalgar Square is a splendid place to walk around too. There you can see Nelson column with four bronze lions at the bottom of the monument. This monument is devoted to Trafalgar Battle.
 - That's O'K. You are welcome.

A letter from my friend

Dear Roman,

Just writing you to say "thank you" for your letter. You ask me what to see in London if you have only two days.

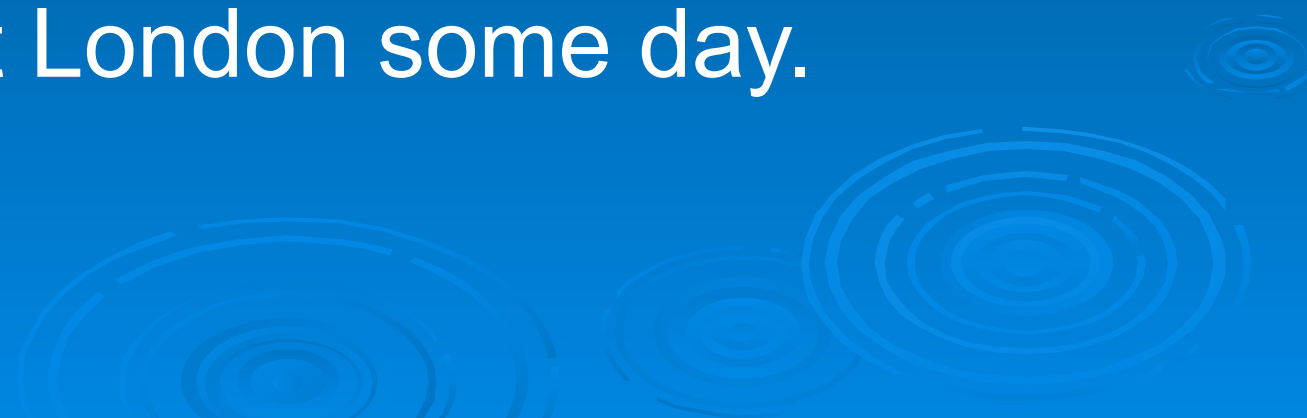

If I were you I'd visit Trafalgar Square. The Tower is a very interesting sight of London, too. It's towers are nice to be visited. Here the Jewelry room is situated. I know that your hobby is connected with history, so, it will be useful and pleasant for you at the same time.

Hope to see you soon in London. Say hello to your mum.

Yours, Sam Watson.

CONCLUSION:

- London is famous for Big Ben & Trafalgar Square.
 - London is the best place to visit and to admire.
 - It is better to see once than hear .
 - Let's visit London some day.
