

Indian Museum ,Kolkata

By:
Budding Stars
Sri Sri Academy
Kolkata, India

Our students at the Indian Museum

- The Indian Museum is the largest museum in India and has rare collections of antiques, armour and ornaments, fossils, skeletons, mummies, and Mughal paintings.
- It has six sections comprising thirty five galleries of cultural and scientific artifacts namely Art, Archaeology, Anthropology, Geology, Zoology and Economic Botany.
- It is one of oldest museums in the world.

Attractions of Indian Museum, Kolkata

Art Collection, Rare Antiques, Egyptian Mummy, Buddhist Stupa from Bharhut, Fossil Skeletons of Prehistoric animals, Buddha's Ashes, Collection of Meteorites etc.

National Emblem in the Museum

Egyptian Gallery

It has a 'mummy' (4000-year-old), sculptures, paintings etc.

The special attractions of the museum include Gandhara art, fossils and skeletons of primitive animals, Tibetan Thankas, and other rare paintings.

Elephant skeleton

PAINTING GALLERY

The museum also displays extraordinary paintings and artifacts of both ancient and modern India.

A nautch party
Painted on mica
Late 19th century A.D.

The ash remains of Lord Buddha is one of the valued assets of the Indian Museum.

Panel from Buddhist Stupa