

HIPPIE subculture

The beginning of the hippie movement can be considered as 1965 in the United States

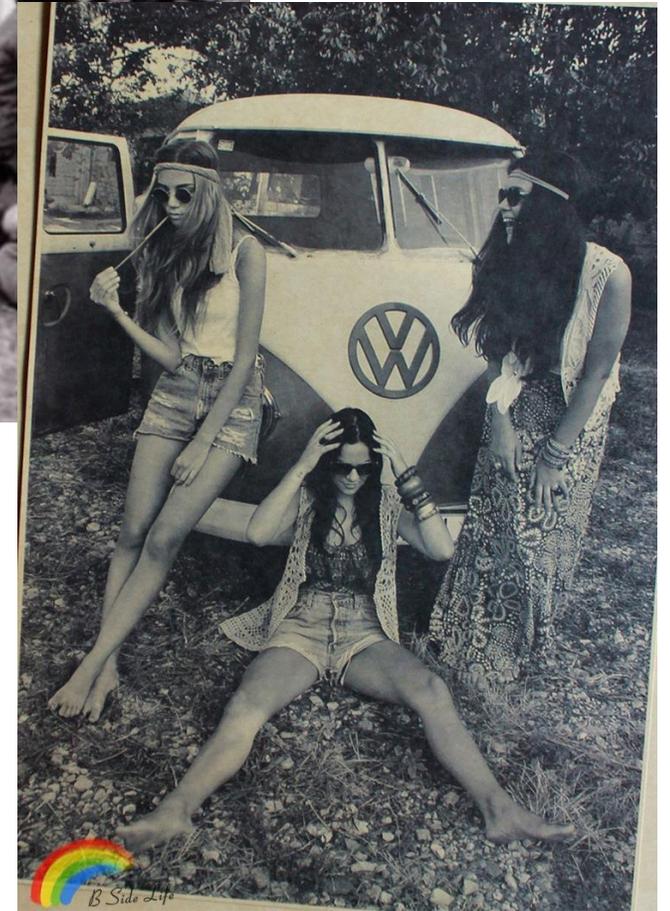

The main objective is a protest against the war with Vietnam.

Slogans

- * «Off The Pig!»
- * «Give Peace A Chance» (the name of the song Lennon)
- * «Hell No, We Won't Go!»
- * «All You Need Is Love!» (the name of the song Lennon)
- * « Make Love, Not War»

Ideology Outlook Philosophy

Peace symbols

The logo for the British Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament

PEACE
& LOVE

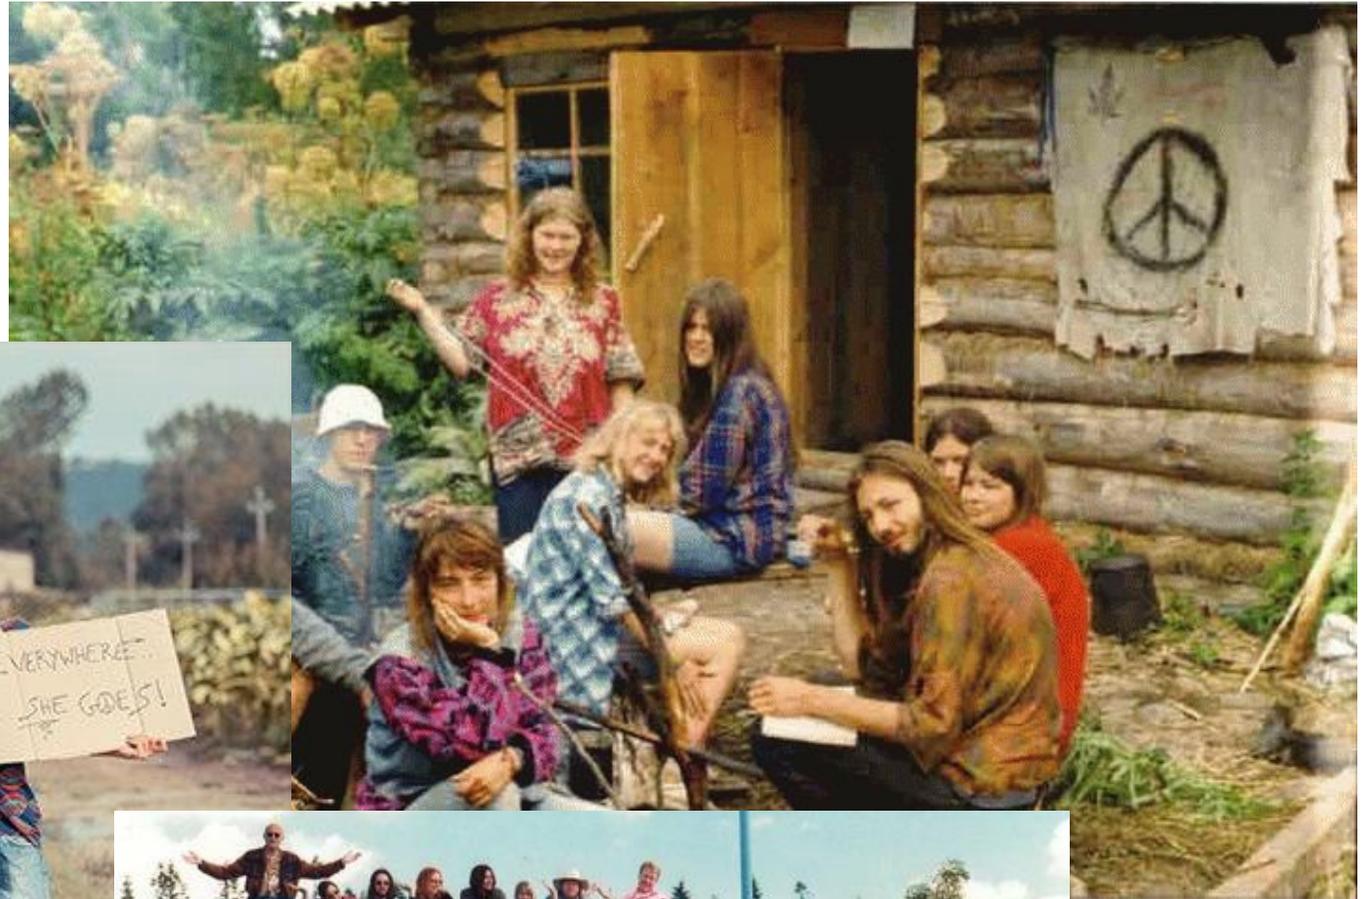

One of the typical means of movement of the hippies was considered the VW T1, which is often painted in all colors of the rainbow

Lifestyle

Appearance

Tie-dye

Hippies dressed in tie-dyed clothing

One of the most characteristic parts of your wardrobe hippie flare jeans

The most common accessories - handmade bracelets and beads

Hairstyles

Most hippies, both male and female, wear long, loose hair. Sometimes they make themselves amusing curvy hairstyles. It is permissible to braid complex braids, make tails. Sometimes hippies braid dreadlocks.

Music

Hippie music was rock'n'roll,
psychedelic rock,
folk music

Bands and performers

- The Doors
- the Animals
- John Lennon
- Bob Dylan
- The Jimi Hendrix Experience
- Janis Joplin
- Jefferson Airplane
- The Mamas & the Papas
- Grateful Dead
- The Who
- The Beatles
- Bob Marley

Bob
Marley

The Beatles

Jimi Hendrix

The famous music festival Woodstock

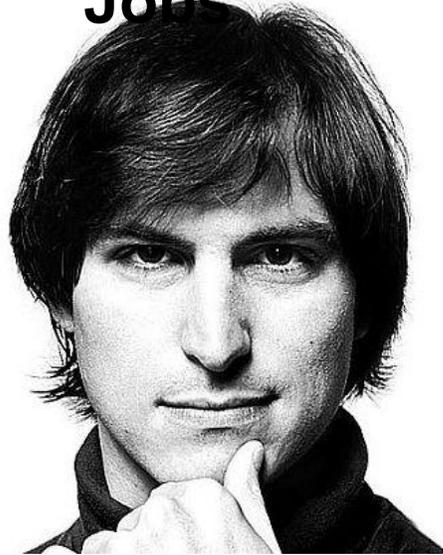

Well-known personalities

Ken Kesey

Steve Jobs

Mahatma Gandhi

Janis Joplin

Thank you for your attention!

