

A stack of several newspapers is shown, slightly out of focus, with the top page clearly visible. The text is overlaid on this image.

Методика работы с аутентичным газетным текстом

Газета в современной жизни - важнейшее средство передачи информации. В жизни любого человека она играет огромную роль. Поэтому перед образовательными учреждениями стоит задача научить - выпускников читать газеты, как на родном, так и на иностранном языках.

Правильно поставленное обучение чтению общественно-политической литературы (и в первую очередь газетных текстов) является одним из сильных средств идейно-политического воспитания, стимулирует интерес студентов к иностранному языку и способствует развитию речевых навыков.

1 этап. Работа с газетой

Задания:

Посмотрите номер и скажите:

- какие рубрики он содержит
- какие рубрики (статьи) привлекли ваше внимание

2 этап. Ознакомительное чтение

Задания:

- по иллюстрациям, сопровождающим статью, определи, о чем рассказывается в ней.

The screenshot shows the homepage of The Moscow Times. The main headline is "Film Festival Aims to Bring More Horror to Russia" by Alexander Bratersky, dated 27 January 2012. A red oval highlights a photo of Canadian actor Jodelle Ferland, who is mentioned in the text as starring in "Scream 4". The article text states: "Horror film aficionados can wrap themselves in the dark night of a festival this weekend as a gathering of foreign stars comes to Moscow for the Kaplya, or Drop, horror film festival aimed at boosting the local fright movie industry." The right sidebar features a "Sochi 2014" section with the latest news, analysis, and commentary regarding the 22nd Winter Olympics, and a "Most Read" section with two articles: "IOC Member Says One-Third of Olympic Funds Lost to Corruption" and "FBI Sending Dozens of Agents to Russia to Strengthen Security at Winter Olympics".

2 этап. Ознакомительное чтение

Задания:

- прочтите заголовков и подзаголовков и скажи, о чем (ком) будет идти речь в данной статье.

The Moscow Times Archive | PDF Mobile
Last Updated: 01/12/2014 @ My profile: Login or register for free
Follow us on RSS Twitter Facebook YouTube VK

Home News Business Opinion Arts & Ideas Beyond Moscow Q&A Environment Careers Sochi 2014

Film Festival Aims to Bring More Horror to Russia
27 Nov 2013 11:00 AM GMT
By Alexander Bratersky

Canadian actor Jodelle Ferland, who starred in "Silent Hill," a film version of a video game, and a "Twilight" movie will fly in for the three-day festival.

Horror film aficionados can wrap themselves in the dark night of a festival this weekend as a gathering of foreign stars comes to Moscow for the Kaplya, or Drop, horror film festival aimed at boosting the local fright movie industry.

Also in Arts & Ideas

- Three Days in Hell' Condemns Material Lives
- New Year's Parties in The Holiday Break
- NCCA Announces New Building Design
- 5 Things You Didn't Know About Kalashnikov (Photo Essay)
- Fairy-Tale Characters Celebrate Holidays in Belarus

Tags
culture

Sochi 2014
The latest news, analysis and commentary regarding the 22nd Winter Olympics

Most Read

Today Last week Last month

1. IOC Member Says One-Third of Olympic Funds Lost to Corruption
2. FBI Sending Dozens of Agents to Russia to Strengthen Security at Winter Olympics

2 этап. Ознакомительное чтение

Задания:

- прочтите первый абзац и скажите, какую информацию передает вся статья.

Canadian actor Jodelle Ferland, who starred in "Silent Hill," a film version of a video game, and a "Twilight" movie will fly in for the three-day festival.

Horror film aficionados can wrap themselves in the dark night of a festival this weekend as a gathering of foreign stars comes to Moscow for the Kaplya, or Drop, horror film festival aimed at boosting the local fright movie industry.

The three-day event mixes an award ceremony Friday with a six-film festival and master classes by the stars.

Topping the bill will be Canadian Jodelle Ferland, who starred in the 2006 horror film "Silent Hill" and more recently as a vampire in the "Twilight Saga: Eclipse."

2 этап. Ознакомительное чтение

Задания:

- прочтите последний абзац и скажи, какое содержание может предшествовать ему.

Horror films have a positive effect on society, claimed Bulankin, teaching the audience how not to be afraid.

"Critics say horror films produce a negative effect on society, but then we see documentaries on police on Russian television," said Bulankin, referring to local television's real blood-and-guts formula, "and that is considered normal."

- найдите интернациональные слова и по ним определите тему текста.

2 этап. Ознакомительное чтение

Задания:

- прочтите первые предложения абзацев и назовите вопросы, которые будут рассматриваться в тексте.

The three-day event mixes an award ceremony Friday with a six-film festival and master classes by the stars.

Topping the bill will be Canadian Jodelle Ferland, who starred in the 2006 horror film "Silent Hill" and more recently as a vampire in the "Twilight Saga: Eclipse."

She is joined by Kare Hedebrant, the young star of the Swedish vampire hit "Let the Right One In," where he plays a young boy who finds out that his neighbor has very sharp teeth.

Festival organizer Viktor Bulankin hopes that the festival, now in its second year, will boost Russian horror filmmaking.

3 этап. Работа с текстом статьи

Задания:

- найдите ответ на вопросы:

Когда произошло событие?

Horror film aficionados can wrap themselves in the dark night of a festival this weekend as a gathering of foreign stars comes to Moscow for the Kaplya, or Drop, horror film festival aimed at boosting the local fright movie industry.

The three-day event mixes an award ceremony Friday with a six-film festival and master classes by the stars.

Topping the bill will be Canadian Jodelle Ferland, who starred in the 2006 horror film "Silent Hill" and more recently as a vampire in the "Twilight Saga: Eclipse "

3 этап. Работа с текстом статьи

Задания:

- найдите ответ на вопросы:

Где оно произошло?

Horror films have a positive effect on society, claimed Bulankin, teaching the audience how not to be afraid.

"Critics say horror films produce a negative effect on society, but then we see documentaries on police on Russian television," said Bulankin, referring to local television's real blood-and-guts formula, "and that is considered normal."

Kaplya runs Fri. to Sun. The awards ceremony takes place at Dom Zhurnalistov. 8A Nikitsky Bulvar. Metro Arbatskaya. Tel. 8 (916) 157-2727. www.horrorpremia.ru.

3 этап. Работа с текстом статьи

Задания:

- найдите ответ на вопросы:

Кто главные участники?

Topping the bill will be Canadian Jodelle Ferland, who starred in the 2006 horror film "Silent Hill" and more recently as a vampire in the "Twilight Saga: Eclipse."

She is joined by Kare Hedebrant, the young star of the Swedish vampire hit "Let the Right One In," where he plays a young boy who finds out that his neighbor has very sharp teeth.

Festival organizer Viktor Bulankin hopes that the festival, now in its second year, will boost Russian horror filmmaking.

"Viy" starred leading Soviet actress Natalya Varlei, who famously told how she fell out of a coffin while filming, and she is expected to attend and receive an award.

3 этап. Работа с текстом статьи

Задания:

В каком абзаце содержится главная мысль текста?

For MT

Canadian actor Jodelle Ferland, who starred in "Silent Hill," a film version of a video game, and a "Twilight" movie will fly in for the three-day festival.

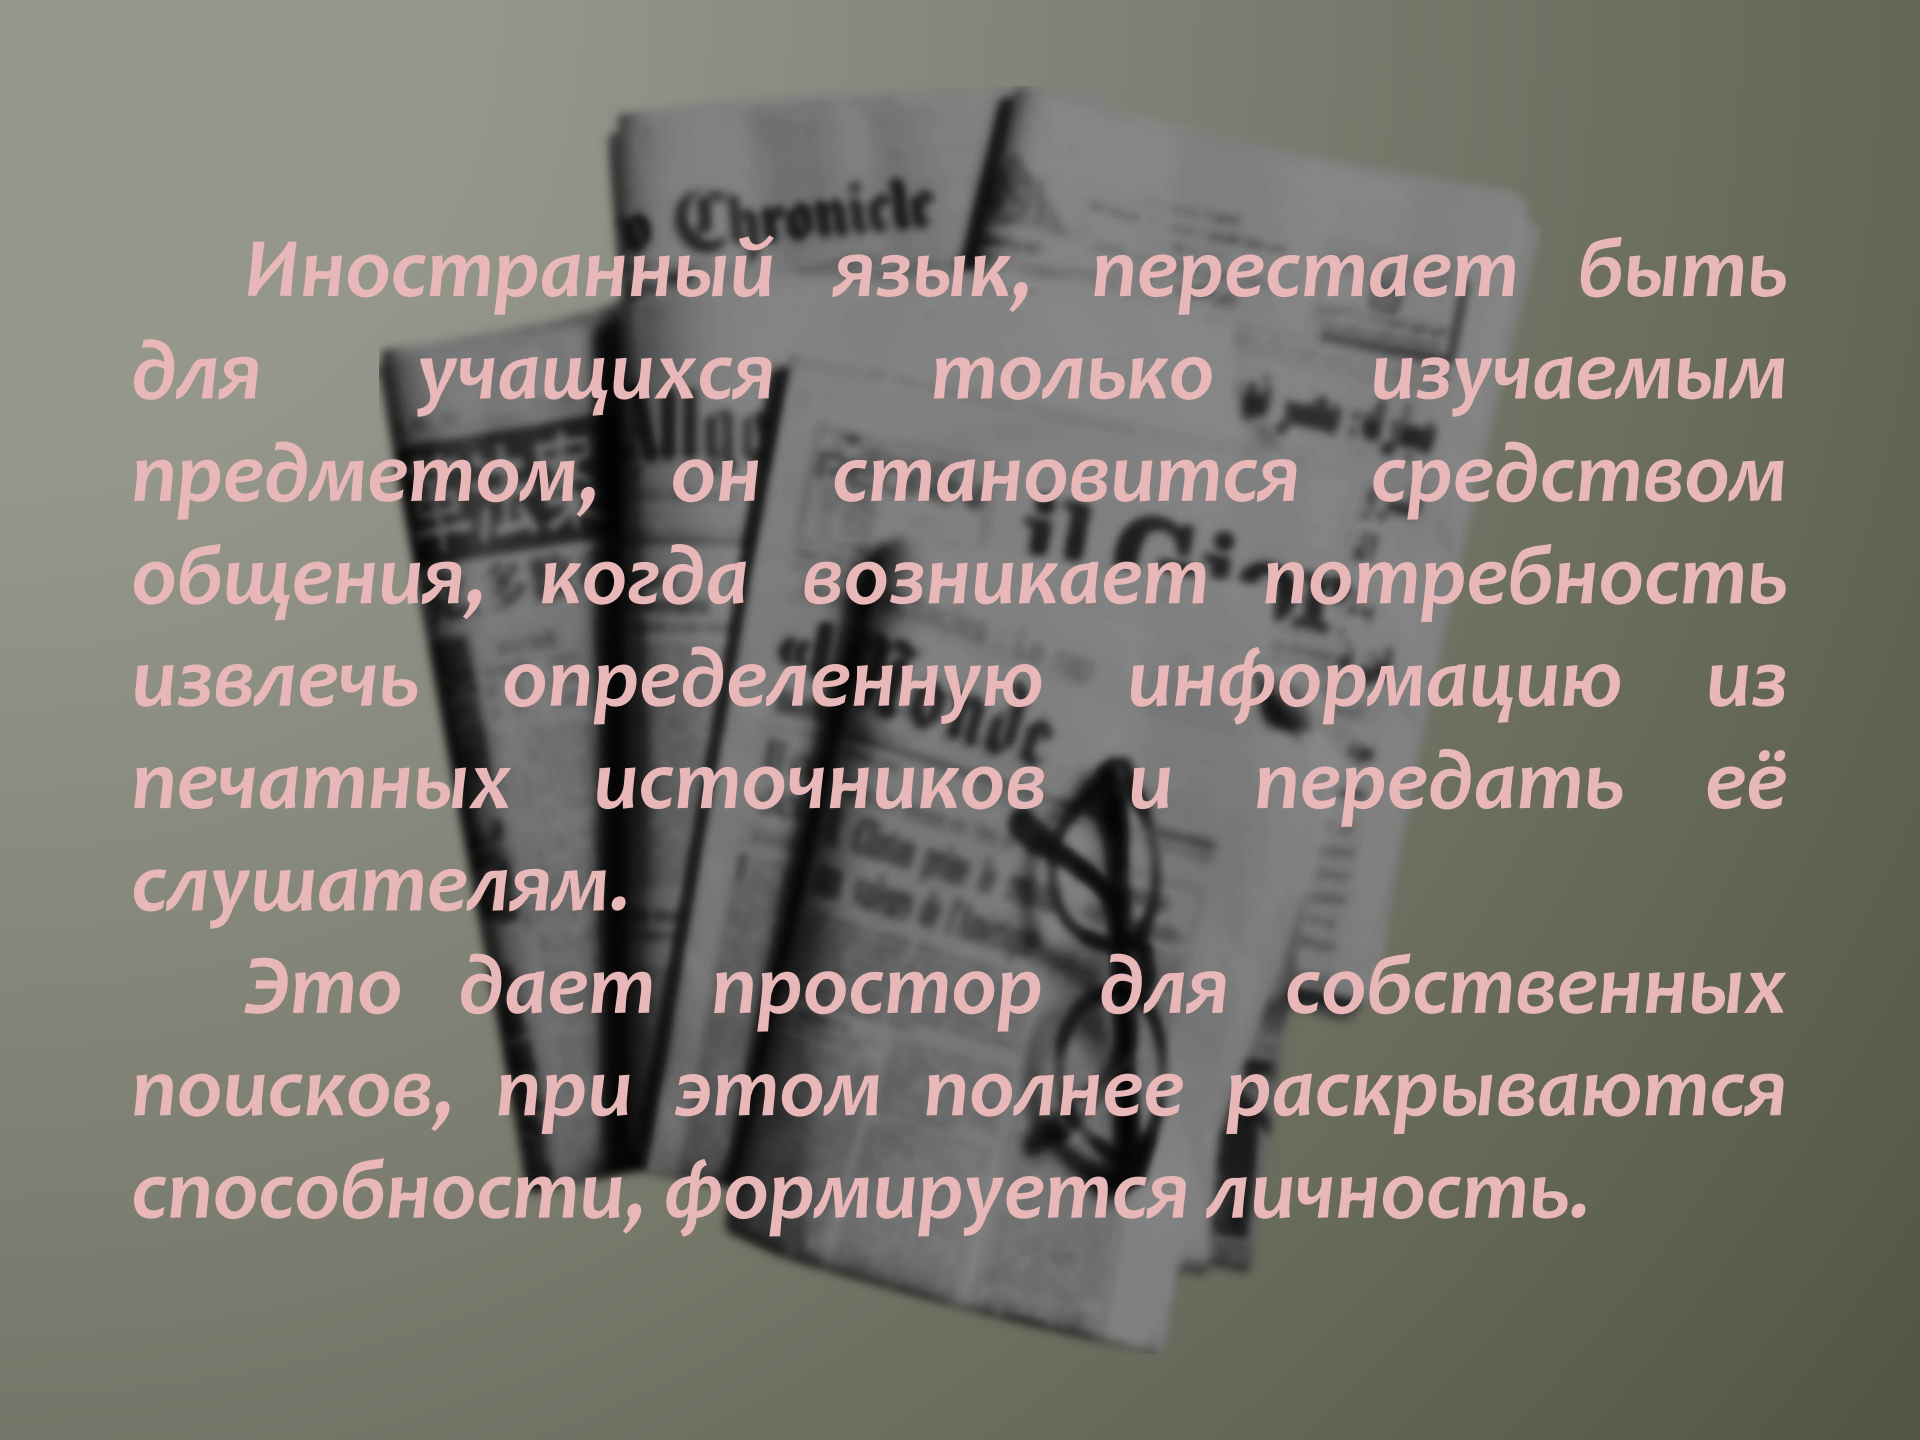

Horror film aficionados can wrap themselves in the dark night of a festival this weekend as a gathering of foreign stars comes to Moscow for the Kaplya, or Drop, horror film festival aimed at boosting the local fright movie industry.

The three-day event mixes an award ceremony Friday with a six-film festival and master classes by the stars.

- Moscow Club Hosts Tibet's Myrinerest
- Ginkas Pulls no Punches in Lady Macbeth
- Further Departures From Tumultuous Bolshoi Theater
- British Indie to Take Over Moscow Club

Tags

culture

Иностранный язык, перестает быть для учащихся только изучаемым предметом, он становится средством общения, когда возникает потребность извлечь определенную информацию из печатных источников и передать её слушателям.

Это дает простор для собственных поисков, при этом полнее раскрываются способности, формируется личность.