Falling in love with a vampire is scary and romantic. But to lose a loved one, who decided to save his girlfriend from the role of a pawn in the eternal confrontation of the clans of "night hunters" at the cost of a break, is simply unbearable. Bella Swan painfully experiences the disappearance of Edward and unsuccessfully seeks oblivion in her friendship with the Indian boy Jacob Black. She does not even suspect that her best friend is the offspring of yet another "people of Darkness." A people much more cruel and dangerous than aristocratic vampires ...
