

A great Maslenitsa

I would like to tell you about a great Maslenitsa celebration in Russia. It is celebrated on last Sunday of March.

On this day there are Russian great folk festivals with a lot of jokes, songs and dances. On the city square, mummers offer everybody hot tea and Russian pancakes with different toppings: honey, jam, butter, eggs!

The climax of the holiday week is burning the effigy, which takes place on Sunday, the Forgiveness Day.
