

HALLOWEEN RHYMES

by Herber

RHYMES

Trick or treat,
smell my feet,
give me something good to eat!

The background is a vibrant red with a subtle pattern of small white dots. In the upper right, a large, bright yellow full moon is partially obscured by several black bat silhouettes in flight. Below the moon, a black silhouette of a witch with a pointed hat and a long, flowing skirt is visible. The bottom of the image is decorated with black silhouettes of pumpkins and swirling vines.

Trick or treat, trick or treat,
Give us something nice to eat.
If you don't, we don't care,
We'll put money in your underwear!

RHYMES

It is the night of Halloween
When all the witches may be seen
Some are fat
Some are thin
And some are as tall as a castor bean!

RHYMES

Flutter, flutter little bat
How I wonder where you're at!
Swooping through the darkest night
You find your way without a light.
Flutter, flutter little bat
How I wonder where you're at!

RHYMES

Jack-o-Lantern, Jack-o-Lantern,
You are such a funny sight.
As you sit there by the window,
Looking out into the night.
You were once a sturdy pumpkin,
growing on a curly vine.
Now you are a Jack-o-lantern,
See your night lights shine.

RHYMES

Witch witch, where do you fly?
Under the clouds and over the sky.
Witch, witch, what do you eat?
Little black apples from Hurricane Street.
Witch, witch, what do you drink?
Vinegar and good red ink.
Witch, witch, where do you sleep?
Up in the clouds where the pillows are cheap.
