

An isometric illustration of a vibrant city street scene. The map shows a grid of roads with various vehicles including cars, trucks, and a bus. Buildings of different heights and styles are scattered throughout, including a large shopping mall with a red sign, a hospital with a green 'H' on its roof, and several modern skyscrapers. Green spaces with trees and benches are interspersed among the buildings. A large blue square with the number '5' is positioned in the upper center, and a blue banner with the text 'Around town' is across the middle.

An amazing city

London is a very big city today. It was very big in 1965 too. My grandpa was a boy in London then.

In 1965 London was an exciting place for fashion and music. The fashion industry was new then and there were a lot of small clothes shops. Pop music was also new, and bands like The Beatles were very popular. There were a lot of small cafés. The theatres were busy, and the museums were full of people.

Today some things about London are different. Now there are more big shops and shopping centres. There are many large cafés. The theatres have more music shows today like Mamma Mia. The museums are full today too. But there are more things to do today. For example, you can have a ride on the London Eye. It was new in 2000.

5 Read Kerry's description of her town. Which is her favourite place in town? .

Hi, my name's Kerry and I live in Portree. It's a village on the Isle of Skye in Scotland.

In the past Portree was a small fishing village and there weren't many shops. There was a post office and bank, but there wasn't a supermarket or a sports centre. It was a very quiet town.

Today Portree is different. There's a big, modern supermarket and a new swimming pool. There's a cinema too (my favourite place 😊)! In the summer it's very busy. Tourists visit the island, so Portree has restaurants and hotels. People also swim in the sea! Portree is a lovely place to live.
