What is your favourite song? What's the song about?

What kind of music is it?

What do you know about the singer/band?

Talking about songs

exs. 5, 6

a) Prepare a DJ's introduction to your favourite song.

First, brainstorm your ideas.

- What kind of music is it?
- What do you know about the singer/band?
- What's the song about? Why do you like it?

b) Bring your song to class and introduce it.

The phrases below can help you.

This song is rap/hip-hop/pop/... • The band/singer is from Russia/... • It's a really cool/fantastic/... song. • I always think of ... when I hear this song. • easy to listen to • great lyrics • It's about ...

Daisy: Are you and Alfie going to the festival this weekend?

Oliver: Hmm? We want to, but we don't have a car so we're not sure how to get there. It's in the middle of nowhere!

Daisy: Amy's dad is taking us on Saturday morning, and he's offered to bring us home again on Sunday. Why not come with us?

Oliver: But where would we sleep? You can't fit five adults and tents in one car.

Daisy: You can in his – it's one of those cars for seven people, so there's plenty of room.

Although we could look for a bed and breakfast in the village near the festival, if you'd rather.

Oliver: No, no, brilliant! Camping and concerts. A great combination!

Daisy: Or camping, concerts and cooking. It's a world music festival but there's also food from all over the world – Chile, Ethiopia, ummm ...

A conjunction is a type of connective. In this case, conjunctions are used in order to link two parts of a sentence together. Here are some examples of coordinating conjunctions being used in sentences:

"I had a shower and brushed my teeth."

"He is not very sporty, nor is he very bright."

"Would you prefer cereal or toast?"

"I went to bed very late, so I am very tired today."

Why Are Letters Important?

Have you ever received a letter?

What was the letter about?

Did you keep the letter to share again?

Did you write back and send a reply?

Different Types of Letters

Letters can be organised under two headings. These are called formal letters and informal letters.

Formal letters are letters which are sent to people you don't know. They can be sent for different reasons, for example to complain about something, to give or ask for information or to make an appointment. Formal letters are usually set out in a certain way.

Informal letters are letters which are sent to people you know. For example, sending a postcard telling someone about your holiday, to say, "thank you" for a birthday present or writing to friends or family who might live a long way from you.

What Is an Informal Letter?

An informal letter is a letter that we send to people we know.

Types of informal letters can be:

- Thank-you letters;
- Postcards;
- Letters to friends or family who live further away.

Town
Russia

In your letter you asked me about my favourite festival.

My favourite festival is a national holiday in China. It is called the Dragon Boat Festival. This celebration has been in existence for over 2,000 years! Dragon boat racing is the most popular part of the Dragon Boat Festival. What is more, boats are decorated to look like dragons. The team who wins the race believes they will receive good luck. Sticky rice dumplings are a popular food during the Dragon Boat Festival. Another popular custom is to wear perfume pouches called sachets. The Dragon Boat Festival is celebrated in many different areas in China and around the world.

I'm sorry, but I need to go now. It's time to do my homework.

Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Latisha

- Start with: Dear [Jake],
- Begin the main part of the letter with a short introduction. You can use phrases like: How are you? / Sorry I didn't reply sooner. / Thanks for your letter.
- Write in paragraphs.
- Do not use very formal language in your letter.
- Use contractions (it's, there's, etc).
- Finish the main part of the letter with a short paragraph. You can use phrases like: That's all for now. I'd better go now. Write again soon.
- End the letter with Love, or Best wishes, and your first name.

- 5 Joke time! What kind of songs do planets sing? Do you know the answer? Hint: Look at the picture and in the text.

- 5 Joke time! What kind of songs do planets sing? Do you know the answer? Hint: Look at the picture and in the text.

Neptunes! Neptune is a planet and a 'tune' is a song.

Hi Latisha,

How are you doing? Hope you are well. Thank you for the headphones for my birthday. I'm listening to music with them all the time because they are very comfortable. I just love them. I'm in the library at the moment. I'm studying and trying to finish my project but it isn't going very well. Do you fancy going to the concert next week? Let me know and I will book the tickets!

That's all for now. Anyway, I'd better go now!

Take care,

Katrina
