Where did you spend your last holiday? What did you do/see there?

Dear Darren,

2

First of all, we are going to do a lot of sightseeing. We are going to see the Kremlin, Red Square, St Basil's Church, Lenin's Tomb, the Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts and The State History Museum. Dad is also going to take us to the famous Bolshoi Ballet theatre. Isn't it wonderful? My sister wants to go on a day trip down the Moskva River but Dad says it's too tiring, so we are not going to travel there. That's OK though because we are going to spend a whole day in the Moscow Zoo, the largest zoo in Russia which has a great collection of animals and exotic species.

I'm going to take lots of interesting pictures to show you when I get back. I'm also going to bring you a Matryoshka.

3

Mum can't wait to go shopping. She wants to visit the GUM department store, the largest department store in Russia, where you can find everything from clothes to caviar. She says she needs to have a whole day there. As for me, I'm going to taste as many local dishes as possible. Russian cuisine is delicious and their pies and chocolates are just great. I hope I can fit in my clothes when we come back.

Greetings from Moscow! I arrived here with my family yesterday and we're already excited! The city is terrific and there are a million things to do.

Take care,

Lucy

Writing (a letter)

*Dear Olga,
Greetings from London, the UK. I arrived here with my family yesterday and we're very excited. There are a million things to do here. First of all, we are going to do a lot of sightseeing. We are going to see the Houses of Parliament with Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Trafalgar Square, the Tower. Then Dad is going to take us sightseeing in a red double-decker. Sounds fantastic, doesn't it? Mum and I are going to go shopping soon. There are so many shops in Oxford Street. I'm going to buy a new pair of jeans and some souvenirs. We're also going to taste some local food, perhaps fish and chips. I'm going to take a lot of pictures to show you when I get back.*

Kisses, Andrey

You are on holiday in your favourite city. Write a letter to your best friend, saying what you are going/not going to do there. Compare with what you did during your last holiday.
