

DEPARTMENT
OF INFORMATION
TECHNOLOGIES
FEM CULS PRAGUE

ETE2AE+ETZ09E – Operating systems and Computer Networks 1st lecture - introduction

Lecturer

- Tomáš VOKOUN
- vokoun@pef.czu.cz
- Office 336 – PEF 3rd lvl (blue)
- Consulting hours – Tuesday 10.30-12.00
in 2021 on-line only with the previous reservation required
- Last consultations – April 27th 2021

Course content

- Computational models
- Operating systems principles, structure and services
- Computer networks, reference models
- Building and diagnosis of computer networks

Course rules

- Respect the deadlines
- Watch the Moodle
- Respect the deadlines
- No Wikipedia sources
- Respect the deadlines
- Communicate with the lecturer

Credit and exam requirements

- Credit (preliminary) – assigned in weeks 11&12 (odd/even group)
 - Individual work (points) + case study (points)
 - OS and PT activities (uploaded+accepted)
 - Attendance is checked by uploading activities
 - Passed 3 self tests or passed Credit test (pass/fail type)
 - No less than 42 points of 100 for credit
 - Guest lecture attendance (not sure yet)
- Exam (May-June)
 - Written test in Moodle - 60 points of 100 to pass
 - Oral exam (can be skipped)

Lecture and seminars

- Lecture using Teams (Thursdays 17.30)
 - theoretical, live or pre-recorded
 - see schedule – Moodle
- Seminars using Teams (Thursdays 19.15)
 - odd / even group – choose yourself
 - consultation style (assignment is available in advance, students attend with specific questions)
 - practical, group work, presentations (in 2021?)

Important notes

- Registration for the course (seminars) will be closed after the 2nd week of the semester.
- All students MUST choose their group (odd/even) and register into this course during the first two weeks of the semester (including Erasmus and other non-regular students).
- It is absolutely not possible to start to study this course when the first two weeks of the semester already passed.
- Requests for credit (preliminary) or exam recognition must be made during the first two weeks of the semester.
- Students with recognized credit (preliminary) must also enrol this course in the Moodle.

Exam

- Credit (preliminary) must be achieved first.
- Written part
 - Test in the Moodle, 3 attempts, 100 points max
 - The term in the Test centre may be selected by the student. (in 2021 probably at home)
- Oral part
 - Only after passing the written test!!!
 - Terms announced in the UIS, enrolment needed.

A blank screen slide is supposed to be here...

