Jan Andrzej Pawel Kaczmarek

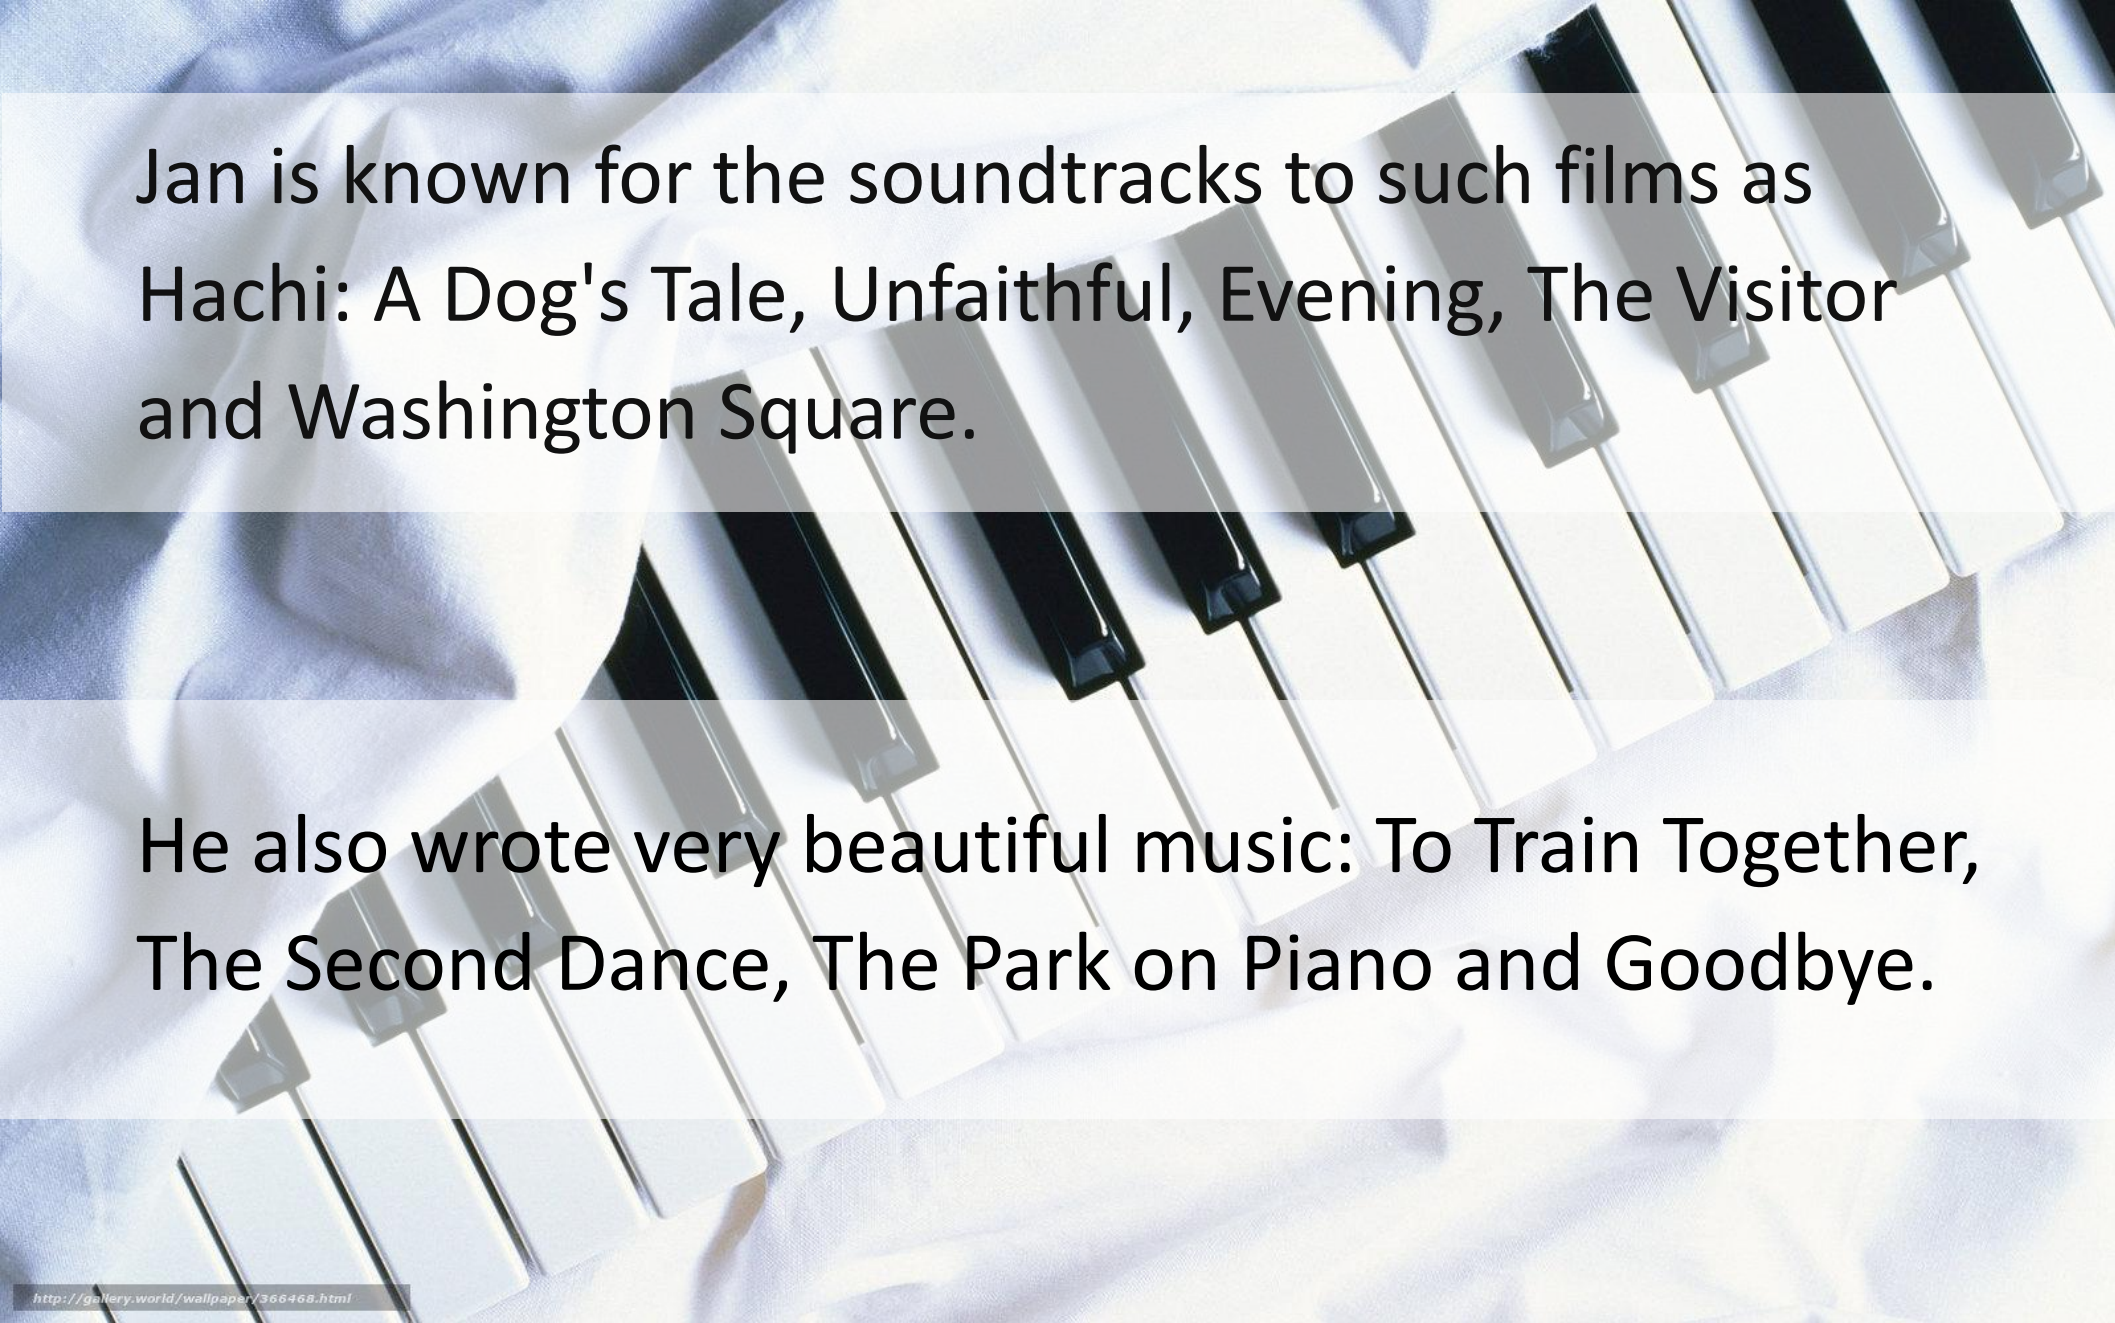

29 апреля 1953 (64 года)

Jan Kaczmarek is a famous Polish composer who has lived and worked in the United States since 1989.

He has written the music for more than 60 feature films and documentaries, including Finding Neverland (2004), for which score he won an Academy Award and National Board of Review Award.

Jan is known for the soundtracks to such films as Hachi: A Dog's Tale, Unfaithful, Evening, The Visitor and Washington Square.

He also wrote very beautiful music: To Train Together, The Second Dance, The Park on Piano and Goodbye.

A close-up of actor Richard Gere, looking off-camera with a gentle expression. He is wearing a dark coat and a patterned scarf. He is holding a small, fluffy Shiba Inu puppy in his gloved hands. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue and white.

Goodbye

A perspective view of train tracks receding into the distance under a hazy, blue sky. The tracks are made of dark rails and light-colored sleepers.
