

A close-up photograph of a violin resting on an open book of musical notation. The violin is positioned diagonally across the frame, with its body on the right and its neck extending towards the top left. The book is open, showing several pages of musical notation with various notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'cresc.' and 'decreso.'. The background is a textured, light-colored fabric. A semi-transparent blue banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the name and date in white text.

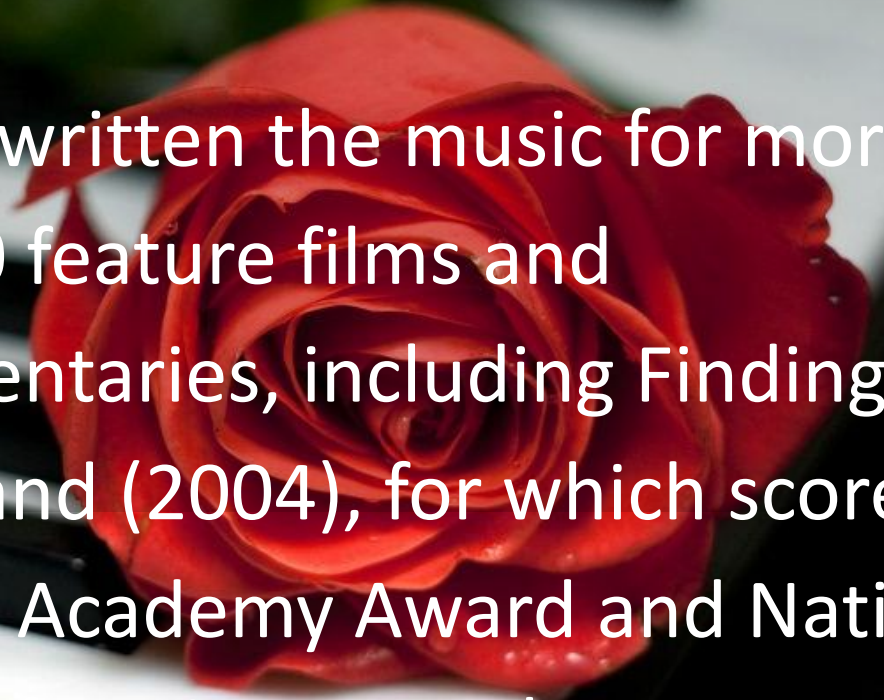

Jan Andrzej Pawel Kaczmarek

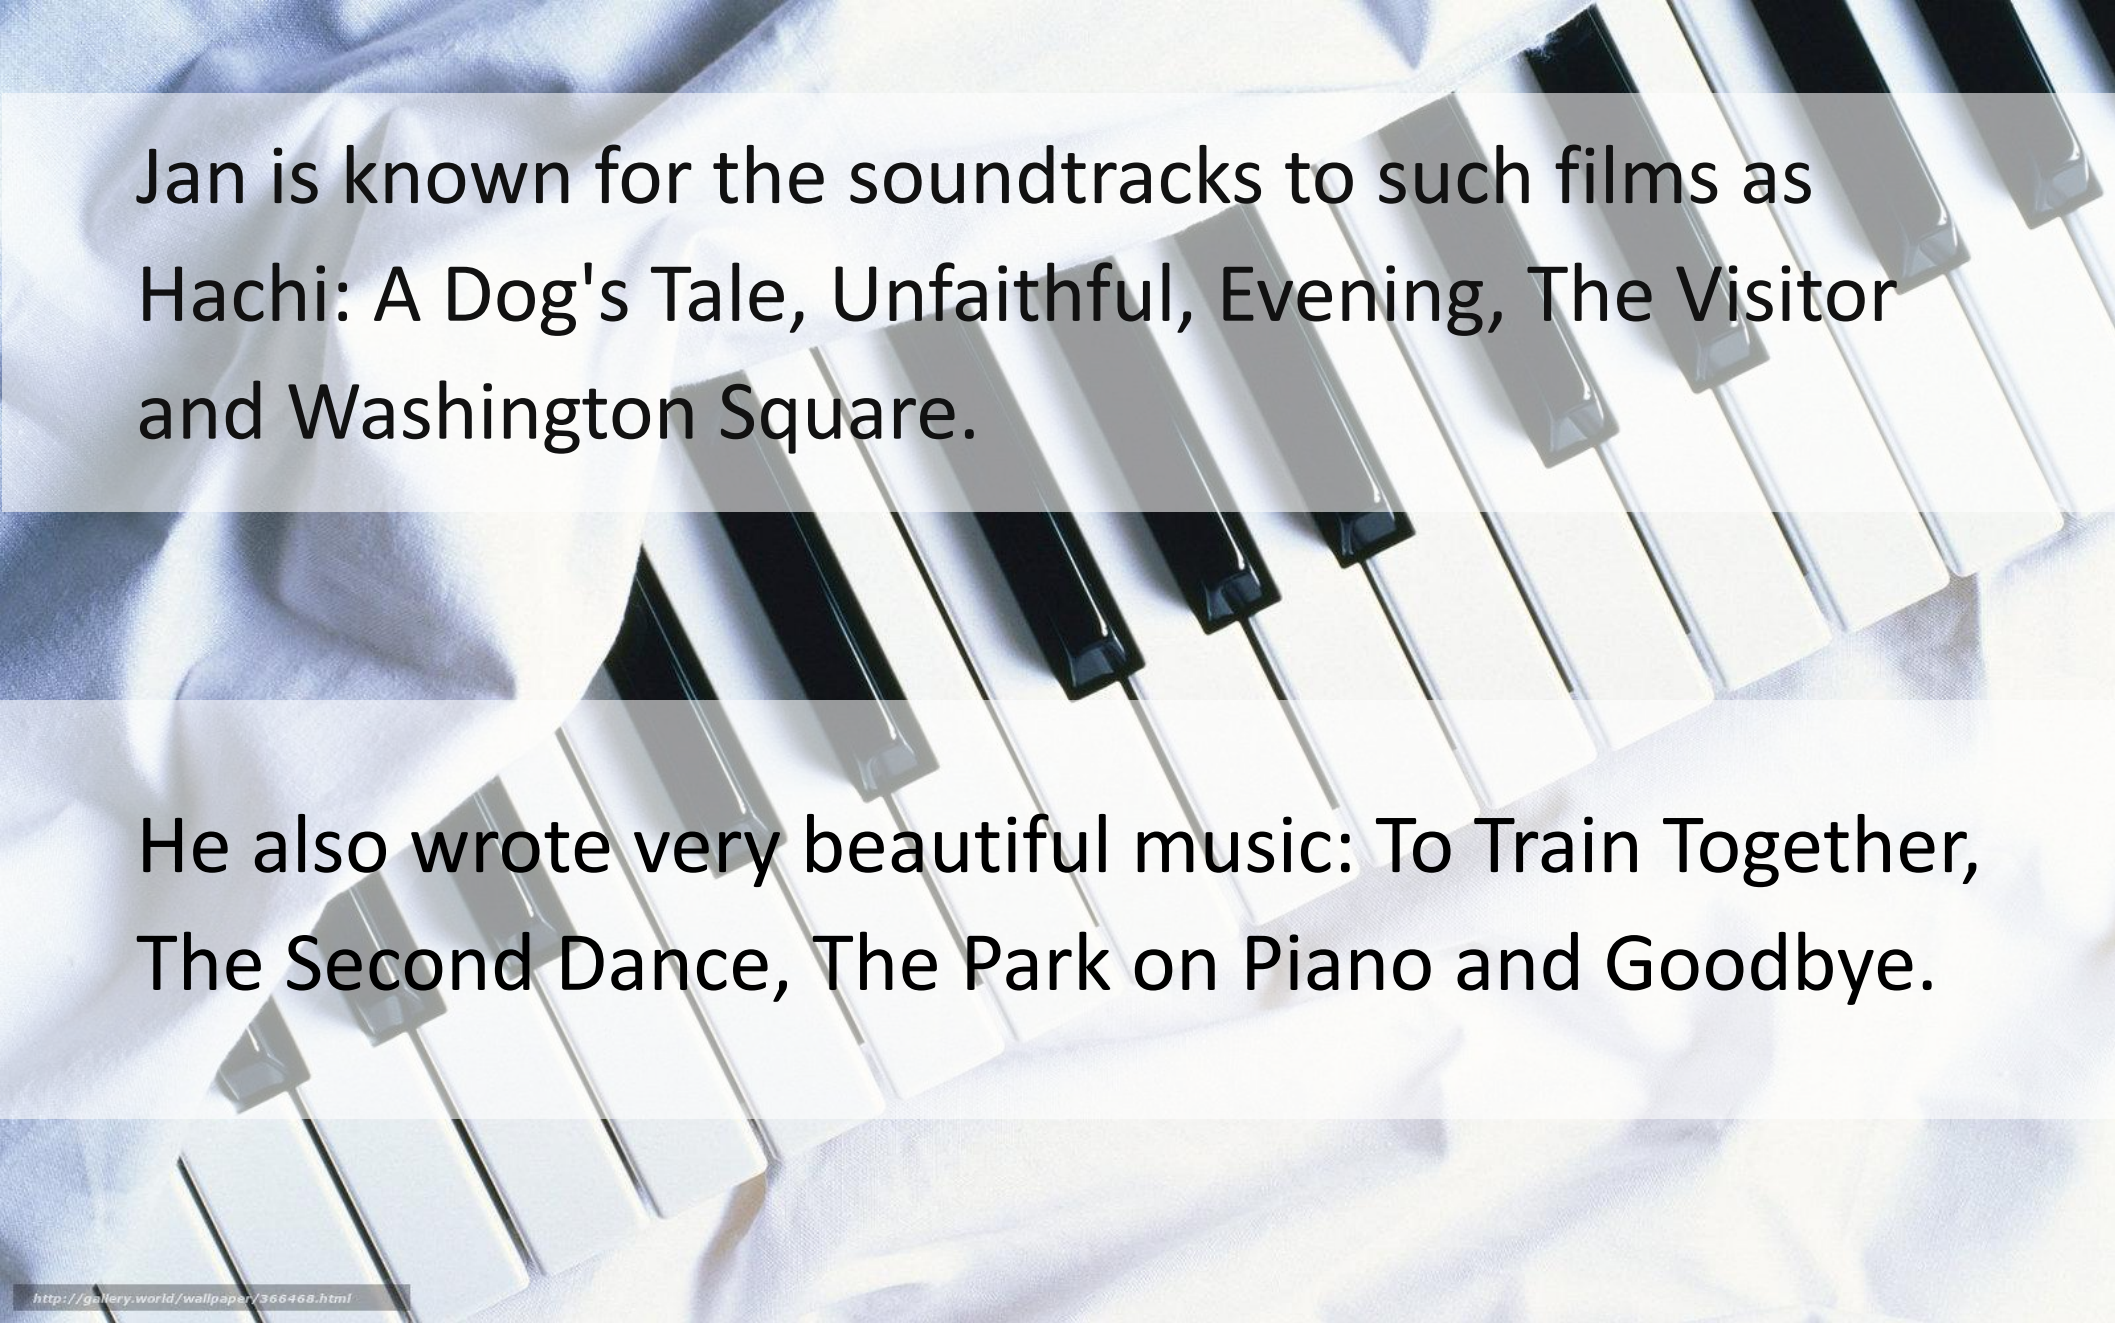

29 апреля 1953 (64 года)

Jan Kaczmarek is a famous Polish composer who has lived and worked in the United States since 1989.

He has written the music for more than 60 feature films and documentaries, including Finding Neverland (2004), for which score he won an Academy Award and National Board of Review Award.

Jan is known for the soundtracks to such films as Hachi: A Dog's Tale, Unfaithful, Evening, The Visitor and Washington Square.

He also wrote very beautiful music: To Train Together, The Second Dance, The Park on Piano and Goodbye.

A promotional poster for the movie 'Hachi'. On the left, Richard Gere is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark jacket and a patterned scarf. He is holding a small, fluffy brown puppy in his gloved hands. The background is a soft-focus image of a piano keyboard with a blue and white color palette. The word 'Goodbye' is written in a large, blue, serif font across the upper right portion of the image.

Goodbye

HATCHI

D'après une histoire vraie.

AU CINÉMA LE 9 JUIN