A cartoon illustration of a bathroom. On the left, a boy with brown hair, wearing an orange t-shirt and dark shorts, is running happily towards the right. Behind him is a white front-loading washing machine. In the center is a white pedestal sink with a white toilet behind it. To the right is a white bathtub with a blue shower curtain hanging from a brown rod. A shower head is attached to the wall above the tub. A yellow arrow points to the right from the bottom right corner. The background is a light blue wall with a pattern of rounded squares. The floor is a darker blue with a yellow circular mat in the foreground.
