

An aerial photograph of a city in Tyumen Oblast, Russia. The city is built on a wide riverbank, with a main road running parallel to the river. The buildings are mostly multi-story structures with light-colored facades and dark roofs. There are green spaces and trees scattered throughout the urban area. The background shows a vast landscape with fields and forests under a clear sky.

The image shows the exterior of a children's store named "Дети Лэнд" (Children's Land) at night. The store is located on the ground floor of a multi-story building. The entrance features a white double door with a small sign above it that reads "ТОВАРЫ ДЛЯ ДЕТЕЙ" (Goods for children). Above the door is a large, illuminated sign with the store's name "ДЕТИ ЛЭНД" in bright, glowing letters. The sign is decorated with colorful cartoon characters. To the right of the entrance, there is a ramp with a metal railing. The building's windows are lit from within, and the overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the store's sign and interior lights.
